Directors' Report

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 September 2025.

Incorporation

The company was incorporated on 16 September 2003.

Principal Activities

The Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited's main objectives are:

- 1 Advancement of the Christian Faith;
2. Relief of poverty;
3. Advancement of Education; and
4. The relief of sick and disabled persons and the promotion of their physical and spiritual welfare.

This is achieved through regular meetings at a local branch level, an annual summer holiday and various other activities which bring able-bodied and disabled people together.

The Trust promotes a Christian ethos throughout all its activities.

Eagle Fellowship Trust is recognised by the Inland Revenue as a charity for tax purposes.

Review of Business and future development

The income and expenditure account for the year is set out on page 6 and the balance sheet is on page 7.

The directors expect that the nature of the future activities of the Trust will continue as described above.

Directors

The directors of the company at 30 September 2025 are listed below:

S Bailie (Chairman)
J Peacock
J Johnston

Corporate Governance

Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the company, in the event of the same being wound up while he or she is a member, or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member for payment of debts and liabilities of the Trust contracted before he or she ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustments of the rights of the contributors among themselves, such amounts as may be required not exceeding £1.

Transfer to Reserves

The deficit for the year of £7,056 was transferred to reserves.

Remuneration

Members of the Board of Directors received no remuneration during the year.

Director's Responsibilities

The directors are required by company law to prepare financial accounts for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used, and these have been applied consistently, and reasonable and prudent judgement and estimates have been made in the preparation of the accounts for the year. The directors also confirm that applicable accounting standards have been followed and that the accounts have been prepared on the going concern basis.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Special provisions relating to small companies

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

By Order of the Board

Stephen Bailie
Chairman

Independent Examiner's Report on the unaudited accounts to the directors of Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 30 September 2025, which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing accrual accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of Chartered Accountants Ireland.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the 2005 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and is in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (i) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(b) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - which are consistent with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charitieshave not been met, or
- (ii) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report on the unaudited accounts to the directors of Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 30 September 2024, which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing accrual accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of Chartered Accountants Ireland.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the 2005 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and is in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. ## Directors' Report

The directors present their report and accounts for the year ended 30 September 2023.

Incorporation

The company was incorporated on 16 September 2003.

Principal Activities

The Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited's main objectives are:

1. Advancement of the Christian Faith;
2. Relief of poverty;
3. Advancement of Education; and
4. The relief of sick and disabled persons and the promotion of their physical and spiritual welfare.

This is achieved through regular meetings at a local branch level, an annual summer holiday and various other activities which bring able-bodied and disabled people together.

The Trust promotes a Christian ethos throughout all its activities.

Eagle Fellowship Trust is recognised by the Inland Revenue as a charity for tax purposes.

Review of Business and future development

The income and expenditure account for the year is set out on page 6 and the balance sheet is on page 7.

The directors expect that the nature of the future activities of the Trust will continue as described above.

Corporate Governance

Every member of the Company undertakes to contribute to the assets of the company, in the event of the same being wound up while he or she is a member, or within one year after he or she ceases to be a member for payment of debts and liabilities of the Trust contracted before he or she ceases to be a member, and of the costs, charges and expenses of winding up, and for the adjustments of the rights of the contributors among themselves, such amounts as may be required not exceeding £1.

Transfer to Reserves

The surplus for the year of £1,407 was transferred to reserves.

Remuneration

Members of the Board of Directors received no remuneration during the year.

Director's Responsibilities

The directors are required by company law to prepare financial accounts for each financial year that give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the company as at the end of the financial year and of the profit or loss of the company for that period.

The directors confirm that suitable accounting policies have been used, and these have been applied consistently, and reasonable and prudent judgement and estimates have been made in the preparation of the accounts for the year ended 30 September 2023. The directors also confirm that applicable accounting standards have been followed and that the accounts have been prepared on the going concern basis.

The directors are responsible for keeping proper accounting records, for safeguarding the assets of the company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Special provisions relating to small companies

These accounts have been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part VIII of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 relating to small companies.

Independent Examiner's Report on the unaudited accounts to the directors of Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 30 September 2023, which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing accrual accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of CIMA.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the 2005 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and is in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (i) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(b) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - which are consistent with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charities
- have not been met, or
- (ii) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent Examiner's Report on the unaudited accounts to the directors of Eagle Fellowship Trust Limited

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 30 September 2023, which are set out on pages 6 to 9.

Respective responsibilities of directors and reporting accountants

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing accrual accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination by being a qualified member of CIMA.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (the 2005 Act)
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland and is in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a 'true and fair view' and the report is limited to those matters set out in the next statement.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (i) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
  - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act 2008 and section 44(1)(b) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 8 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
  - which are consistent with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice: Accounting and Reporting by Charitieshave not been met, or
- (ii) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
