A review of the charity's financial position at the end of the year:

In the financial year ending 31st July 2021. The Charity had income of £57,796 and an expenditure of £59,482.

There are no funds held by the charity that are materially in deficit.

Hope for Ethiopia Belfast's main location of aid is Metropolitan Tabernacle Church/ School & Clinic, Kuriftu, Ethiopia.

Main Objectives:

To fees, educate and teach the Gospel to our children in Ethiopia.
To give free medical care to our children and their families in our Clinic on our Compound in Kuriftu.

Hope for Ethiopia receives its financial support each month through child sponsorship and through monthly cash donations from supporters of the work. Fundraising events are held each year to raise funds and sponsoring these funds can be supported financially through our JustGiving page.

Hope for Ethiopia raises approx £2,000/£3,000 each month which is sent over to an account in Kuriftu where that money is used for food, educational materials and medical supplies. No fundraising is needed for buildings as these were already existing on the compound many years ago.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 'Hope for Ethiopia Belfast' Trust

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 July 2023, which are set out on pages 1 to 2.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
