The Articles of Association (governing document of the Aisling Centre) were updated in May 2014. The revised document was sent to the Charities Commission for NI and consent to amend received on 10th July 2014. They were also sent to the Companies House for approval in September 2014.

The Aisling Centre was approved for registration as a charity with the Charity Commission for NI on 4th February 2015, with a registration number of NIC 101096.

The Aisling Centre objects are - to promote good mental health and emotional well-being in Northern Ireland, and in particular for the people of Co Fermanagh and the surrounding area, through the provision of a professional counselling and psychotherapy service, support groups/services, complimentary therapies, befriending, education and social programmes/groups/networks and advice and information.

The number of Directors shall be not less than five or more than twelve.

Quorum for meetings is one half of all members entitle to vote upon the business to be transacted

One third (or the number nearest one third) of the Directors must retire at each AGM, those longest in office retiring first. A retiring Director shall be eligible for re-election.

The AGM will be held on 29th October 2025

Directors' induction and training

New Board members receive induction training. A policy is in place covering training for Directors.

Organisation

The Board of Directors normally meets bi-monthly and holds a minimum of 6 meetings per year one of which is an AGM.

The key role of the Directors is to work collectively to set the strategic direction for the organisation and ensure there is proper oversight of the company in all its business and act as trustees of the charity. The Directors are responsible for ensuring that the company is legally and fiscally compliant.

However, it is important to note that the role of the Directors is to ensure that proper oversight is in place rather than to try to be active in these areas directly. The Board can and does delegate authority to sub-committees, working groups, and employees but it always retains overall responsibility. It may also engage external advisors such as the company auditors to ensure compliance.

The duties of the company directors are to;

- Set and protect the values and principles by which the Aisling Centre operates;
- Set the Strategic direction for the work of the Aisling Centre;
- Ensure that the Aisling Centre has the resources in place to carry out its work according to set plans/programmes and that the company structures and systems also facilitate this;
- Ensure that all key stakeholders have input that is appropriate to their relationship with the Aisling Centre;
- Ensure that human resource issues are dealt in line with legal and contractual obligations and that staff are adequately supported to carry out their work;
- Ensure that the organisation complies with all legal and other requirements related to its status as a charity and a company (including AGM; Annual Accounts and Annual Report);
- Work collectively for the good of the Aisling Centre as a team that respects difference and strives to find consensus.

Related parties

Company Directors - A number of directors made regular donations to the charity during the year. Details of these transactions are outlined further at note 15. There were no other transactions during the year between the charity and the directors.

The Sisters of Mercy transferred ownership of the property at 37 Darling Street to the Aisling Centre in June 2022. They also formally withdrew from any role in the Charity and the Articles of Association were amended to reflect this change in October 2023.

Risk Management

-Risks to Directors, staff, clients and members of the public are covered by robust directors, employers and public liability insurances.

-Risk to children or adults at risk of harm are mitigated by the carrying out of appropriate ACCESS NI checks for all staff and volunteers. This is supported by regular updates of safeguarding training.

As a not-for-profit organisation very dependent on external funding and community support, financial sustainability is an on-going challenge. Directors are ever aware of their governance responsibilities and a reserve fund is maintained so that in the unlikely event that the charity had to close the Directors would be in a position to honour redundancy payments and other legal and moral obligations.

Risks of misappropriation of funds are managed through financial policies and procedures including a fraud policy and the annual external audit of accounts.

Risk management policies and procedures are in place and are reviewed regularly.

Independent Auditors' Report to the Members of Aisling Centre Company Limited

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of Aisling Centre Company Limited for the year ended 31 March 2024 which comprise statement of financial activities (including income and expenditure account), statement of financial position and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards, including Financial Reporting Standard 102 The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion, the financial statements:

- Give a true and fair view of the state of the company's affairs as at 31st March 2025;
- Have been properly prepared in accordance with the United Kingdom General Accepted Accounting Practice;
- Have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standard on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statement in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In auditing the financial statements, we have concluded that the director's use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is appropriate.

Based on the work we have performed, we have not identified any material uncertainties relating to events or conditions that, individually or collectively, may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern for a period of at least twelve months from when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Our responsibilities and the responsibilities of the directors with respect to going concern are described in the relevant sections of this report.

Other information

The other information comprises the information included in the annual report other than the financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The directors are responsible for the other information contained within the annual report. Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and, except to the extent otherwise explicitly stated in our report, we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

Our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the course of the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If we identify such material inconsistencies or apparent material misstatements, we are required to determine whether this gives rise to a material misstatement in the financial statements themselves. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact.

We have nothing to report in this regard.

Independent Auditors' Report to the Members of Aisling Centre Company Limited
for the year ended 31 March 2025

Opinions on other matters prescribed by the Companies Act 2006

In our opinion, based on the work undertaken in the course of the audit:

- The information given in the directors' report for the financial year for which the financial statements are prepared is consistent with the financial statements; and
- The directors' report has been prepared in accordance with applicable legal requirements.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

In the light of the knowledge and understanding of the company and its environment obtained in the course of the audit, we have not identified misstatements in the directors' report.

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the Companies Act 2006 require us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- Adequate accounting records have not been kept by the company, or returns adequate for our audit have not been received by us; or
- The company financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- Certain disclosures of directors' remuneration specified by law are not made; or
- We have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of directors

As explained more fully in the directors' responsibilities statement, the directors are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, the directors are responsible for assessing the company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting fraud is detailed below.

We obtained an understanding of the legal and regulatory framework applicable to the company through enquiry of management, sector research and the application of cumulative audit knowledge. We identified the following principal laws and regulations relevant to the company - Companies Act 2006, Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 and the Accounting and Reporting by charities Statement of recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102)

We developed an understanding of the key fraud risks to the entity (including how fraud might occur) the controls in place to help mitigate those risks, and the accounts balances and disclosures within the financial statements which may be susceptible to management bias. Our understanding was obtained through review of the financial statements for significant accounting estimates, analysis of journal entries, walkthrough of the key controls cycles in place and enquiry of management.

Aisling Centre Company Limited
Company limited by guarantee

Independent Auditors' Report to the Members of Aisling Centre Company Limited
for the year ended 31 March 2025

Our procedures to respond to those risks identified included, but were not limited to:

Enquiry of management, and the entity's solicitors around actual and potential litigation and claims.

Enquiry of management to identify any instances of non compliance with laws and regulations.

Reviewing minutes of meetings of those charged with governance.

Reviewing financial statement disclosures and testing to supporting documentation to assess compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Auditing the risk of management overrides of controls, including through testing journal entries and other adjustments for appropriateness and evaluating the business rationale of significant transactions outside the normal course of business.

Irregularities, including fraud, are instances of non-compliance with laws and regulations. We design procedures in line with our responsibilities, outlined above, to detect material misstatements in respect of irregularities, including fraud. The extent to which our procedures are capable of detecting irregularities, including fraud is available on the FRC's website at: <https://www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities>. This description forms part of our auditors report.

The purpose of our audit work and to whom we owe our responsibilities

This report is made solely to the company's members, as a body, in accordance with Chapter 3 of Part 16 of the Companies Act 2006. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the company's members those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the company and the company's members as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.

The Aisling Centre Company Limited
Company Limited by Guarantee
Notes to the Accounts

1. General information

The charity is a private company limited by guarantee, registered in Northern Ireland and a registered charity in Northern Ireland.

2. Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in compliance with FRS 102, "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and the Republic of Ireland", the Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102) (Charities SORP) (FRS 102).

3. Accounting Policies

Basis of preparation

The financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis.

The financial statements are prepared in sterling, which is the functional currency of the entity.

Going Concern

There are no material uncertainties about the charity's ability to continue in operational existence for the foreseeable future and the Directors continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting in preparing the financial statements.

Judgements and key sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the financial statements requires management to make judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported. These estimates and judgements are continually reviewed and are based on experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

Fund accounting

Unrestricted funds are available for use at the discretion of the directors to further any of the charity's purposes.

Restricted funds are subject to restrictions on their expenditure declared by the donor.

Incoming Resources

All incoming resources are included in the statement of financial activities when entitlement has passed to the charity; it is probable that the economic benefits associated with the transaction will flow to the charity and the amount can be reliably measured. The following specific policies are applied to particular categories of income:

- Income from donations or grants is recognised when there is evidence of entitlement to the gift, receipt is probable and its amount can be measured reliably.
- Income from donated goods is measured at the fair value of the goods unless this is impractical to measure reliably, in which case the value is derived from the cost to the donor or the estimated resale value. Donated facilities and services are recognised in the accounts when received if the value can be reliably measured. No amounts are included for the contribution of general volunteers

- income from contracts for the supply of services is recognised with the delivery of the contracted service. This is classified as unrestricted funds unless there is a contractual requirement for it to be spent on a particular purpose and returned if unspent, in which case it may be regarded as restricted.

Resources expended

Expenditure is recognised on an accruals basis as a liability is incurred. Expenditure includes any VAT which cannot be fully recovered, and is classified under headings of the statement of financial activities to which it relates:

- Expenditure on raising funds includes the costs of all fundraising activities, events, non-charitable trading activities, and the sale of donated goods.
- Expenditure on charitable activities includes all costs incurred by a charity in undertaking activities that further its charitable aims for the benefit of its beneficiaries, including those support costs and costs relating to the governance of the charity apportioned to charitable activities.

All costs are allocated to expenditure categories reflecting the use of the resource. Direct costs attributable to a single activity are allocated directly to that activity. Shared costs are apportioned between the activities they contribute to on a reasonable, justifiable and consistent basis.

Tangible assets

Fixed assets are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation.

Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated so as to write off the cost or valuation of an asset, less its residual value, over the useful economic life of that asset as follows: -

Fixtures and Fittings	-	20% straight line
Plant and machinery	-	20% straight line
