Chairman's Report

=====

We have chaired weekly committee meetings every Saturday evening to discuss the App development.

Secretary's Report 2023 - Jim McCafferty

I have continued to support the Studio-NI android app over the past year.

The app has been enhanced to include:

- The ability for admin to delete posts
- An email alert being sent out to Bruce when a new post has been added
- Notifications sent to Android users when a new post has been added

During our weekly meetings, I have been analysing performance data from the Google Play Console and relating statistics to the committee. I have also played an active role preparing the application for live roll out.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 'Studio NI'

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 05 April 2024, which are set out on pages 2 to 3.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

We have chaired weekly committee meetings every Saturday evening to discuss the App development.

Secretary's Report for Studio-NI AGM 2022

During the 2021/22 period, I have been continuing work on the Studio NI Android application, web-api and website. Bruce has been hosting regular weekly meetings with Phillip Henry and myself in attendance. Special thanks goes out to Andrew Kilgore, who provided some much needed refactoring of the code and new features.

We are applying the finishing touches to all three components and will shortly be submitting the Android application to the Google Play Store for approval.

The Android application contains the following features:

- * Google Login Sign In: allowing users email addresses to be included when submitting posts.
- * A selection of different forums: Casting, Crew, Writing, Events and Locations.
- * Auto refresh of forums by "pulling the screen down".
- * The ability to contact the author of a post via email.
- * The ability to report a post for offensive content.
- * Categories are assigned to posts.
- * Posts can be marked as "favourites", and the forum lists can be filtered to only display favourite posts.
- * A donate link has been added which redirects the user to the donate page on the Studio-NI website.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 'Studio NI'

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 06 April 2023, which are set out on pages 2 to 3.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
