CHURCHILL SILVER BAND

TRUSTEES' REPORT

Objectives and Activities

The band's objectives are to advance the education of persons in the Churchill and surrounding areas in the skills, art and science of music performed by traditional brass bands. During the year these objectives were achieved by holding band practices, arranging for instruction and tuition of members in the playing of their instruments. In addition, concerts and performances were given by the band to inform the wider public in order that they could obtain a better understanding and appreciation of traditional brass band music.

During the year, tuition of young members of the surrounding community was undertaken with the aim to enhance their musical performance with the possibility of admission to band membership.

Financial review

Churchill Silver Band is a registered charity that promotes traditional silver band music in the Churchill area. Receipts are obtained from performances, hall rental and grants and amounted to £9,058 during the year. Expenditure related to the normal running costs of a band and mounted to £6,774 resulting in a surplus of Receipts over Expenditure of £2,284 for the year.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the Charity that reserves, that have not been designated for a specific purpose should be maintained at a level equivalent to 12 months expenditure. The Charity considers that reserves at this level will ensure that, in the event of a significant drop in funding, they will be able to continue some activities however this would be on a reduced scale.

Plans for the future

Future developments

The charity intends to continue the work it performs in promoting traditional silver band music for the benefit of the public.

Trustees' responsibilities statement

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Charities legislation requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under Charities legislation the Trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the receipts and payments, of the charity for that year. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:-

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP;
- make judgments and accounting estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities legislation.

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 29 October 2025.

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on pages 7 to 11.

Respective Responsibilities of Charity Trustees and Examiner

As the Charity's Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under Charities Legislation and is eligible for Independent Examination.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of Independent Examiner's Report

I have examined your Charity Accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as Charity Trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Expenditure related to the normal running costs of a band and mounted to £7,027 resulting in a surplus of Receipts over Expenditure of £1,820 for the year.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the Charity that reserves, that have not been designated for a specific purpose should be maintained at a level equivalent to 12 months expenditure. The Charity considers that reserves at this level will ensure that, in the event of a significant drop in funding, they will be able to continue some activities however this would be on a reduced scale.

Plans for the future

Future developments

The charity intends to continue the work it performs in promoting traditional silver band music for the benefit of the public.

Trustees' responsibilities statement

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Charities legislation requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year. Under Charities legislation the Trustees must not approve the financial statements unless they are satisfied that they give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charity and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the receipts and payments, of the charity for that year. In preparing these financial statements, the Trustees are required to:-
