

Independent Examiner's Report to the Charity Trustees of:

Tres Dias in Ireland; Charity Number NIC 10539

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ending 31 March 2024, as set out in the statement of accounts for this period.

Respective Responsibilities of Charity Trustees and the Examiner

The Charity trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

As Independent Examiner it is my responsibility to:

- (a) Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- (b) Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.
- (c) State whether any particular matters of concern have come to my attention.

Basis of the Independent Examiner's Report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanation from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state if any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

- (1) That the accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act.
- (2) That the accounts do not accord with the accounting records
- (3) That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
- (4) That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
