Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee Charitable Company

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024 which are set out on pages 9 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 63 of the Charities Act
 2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
 3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
 4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's qualified statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Notes to the accounts

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with "The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland" FRS 102, the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities accounts in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Income

All incoming resources are recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities when the conditions for receipt have been met and there is reasonable assurance of receipt. When an incoming resource relating to a future accounting period is received, the amount is treated as deferred income and it is included within creditors in the balance sheet.

Funds

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee has various types of funds for which it is responsible and which require separate disclosure. These are as follows:

- ◆ restricted income funds: income which is earmarked by the donor for specific purposes. Such purposes are within the overall aims of the organisation; and
- ◆ unrestricted funds: funds which are expendable at the discretion of the management board in furtherance of the objects of the organisation. In addition to expenditure on education or services, such funds may be held in order to finance capital investment and working capital.

Costs

Management and administration costs relate to the costs of running the organisation such as the costs of meetings and accountancy and include any costs which cannot be specifically identified to another expenditure classification.

Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated to write off the original cost less the estimated residual value of the fixed assets on a straight line basis over their expected useful lives, as follows:

	%

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee Charitable Company

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2023 which are set out on pages 9 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 63 of the Charities Act
 2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
 3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
 4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's qualified statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Notes to the accounts

1. Accounting policies

Basis of accounting

The accounts have been prepared under the historical cost convention and in accordance with “The Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland” FRS 102, the Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities accounts in the UK and Republic of Ireland (FRS 102), the Companies Act 2006 and the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Income

All incoming resources are recognised in the Statement of Financial Activities when the conditions for receipt have been met and there is reasonable assurance of receipt. When an incoming resource relating to a future accounting period is received, the amount is treated as deferred income and it is included within creditors in the balance sheet.

Funds

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee has various types of funds for which it is responsible and which require separate disclosure. These are as follows:

- ◆ restricted income funds: income which is earmarked by the donor for specific purposes. Such purposes are within the overall aims of the organisation; and
- ◆ unrestricted funds: funds which are expendable at the discretion of the management board in furtherance of the objects of the organisation. In addition to expenditure on education or services, such funds may be held in order to finance capital investment and working capital.

Costs

Management and administration costs relate to the costs of running the organisation such as the costs of meetings and accountancy and include any costs which cannot be specifically identified to another expenditure classification.

Depreciation

Depreciation is calculated to write off the original cost less the estimated residual value of the fixed assets on a straight line basis over their expected useful lives, as follows:

	%
Freehold Property	Straight line over 20 years
Fixtures and fittings	15
Computer equipment	15

Annual return

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee Charitable Company

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2023 which are set out on pages 9 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 63 of the Charities Act
 2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
 3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
 4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's qualified statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Structure, governance and management

Bleary Farmers Hall has been in existence since the mid 1960's serving the needs of the rural Bleary community. The Hall was formerly the Ballydougan Public Elementary Schoolhouse. The Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee is a registered Charity (NIC101715) since 9th September 2015.

The Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee is also a registered Company with Companies House Registration Number: 615610.

The Farmers Hall is governed by a trust deed and the Farmers Hall Management Committee.

Objectives & Activities

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee provide for community development work within the local neighbourhood.

The Farmers Hall Management Committee are providing, maintaining and managing a rural Hall facility to ensure local community organisations have adequate, modern and sufficient facilities to meet the respective needs of each organisation to help ensure active community participation.

The Farmers Hall Management Committee also organise lectures, classes, meetings and community fundraising events and other forms of leisure-time and recreational and educational development.

The objectives are specifically restricted to the advancement of community development, the advancement of education, the relief of poverty, sickness and the aged and the promotion of the benefit of the inhabitants of the Bleary area and its environs in County Armagh, without distinction of age, gender, disability, sexual orientation, nationality, ethnic identity, political or religious opinion, by associating the statutory authorities, community and voluntary organisations and the inhabitants in a common effort to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation or other leisure-time occupation, with the object of fostering a community spirit and improving the conditions of life for the benefit of the inhabitants and in particular to:

- a) The Provision, maintenance and management of a community educational resource hall facility for the use of the inhabitants for activities promoted or facilitated by the Company including use for meetings, lectures, classes and other forms of recreational and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of life for the said inhabitants:
- b) to support community development, social inclusion and well-being activities and to work with partners to support and improve the conditions of the inhabitants in rural life;
- c) to promote or assist in the promotion, facilitation and organisation of community capacity building programme and projects for the benefit of the inhabitants within the area of benefit who have need of such assistance as a result of their youth, age, disability or infirmity, or social and economic circumstances, in a effort to increase the abilities, skills and self-confidence of such inhabitants; d) to advance any other exclusively charitable purpose as the Directors, may from time to time, decide in accordance with the law of charity.

Review of Operations and future development

The Trustees are content with the income generated by the existing Farmers Hall facility in the year to end December 2022. The effect of the Covid-19 pandemic outbreak in the previous two years- from March 2020 had been a disaster to hall usage and thus income.

However, The Farmers Hall Trustees now look favourably to the future and a return to similar levels of income as previous years from the ten hall user groups. The Farmers Hall Management Committee operate under a financial reserves policy.

Review of Finances

The Company income for the year to 31st December 2022 was £13,561 with private and government grants totalling £10,341 Other income generated amounted to £3,220.

Government and private grants were obtained from:

Armagh City Banbridge and Craigavon Borough Council FAP GRANT Community Development

Ulster Community Covid Recovery Fund

To all these funders, The Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee are most grateful.

Public Benefit Statements

The Trustees consider they have complied with their respective duties to have due regard to the guidance on public benefit as published by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland.

Statement of Trustee's responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements in accordance with the applicable law and United Kingdom accounting standards.

Company Law requires the Trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial period to provide a true and fair view of the affairs of the company for that period.

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- Make estimates that are reasonable and prudent
- Select most appropriate accounting policies and apply in a consistent format
- Clarify that applicable accounting standards have been followed and further explained in the financial statements and have prepared the financial statements.

The Trustees confirm that they have complied with the above requirements in preparing the financial statements.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time, the financial position of the company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006.

The Trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud or other irregularities. Policies are also in place for such issues.

Annual return

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of

Bleary Farmers Hall Management Committee Charitable Company

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2022 which are set out on pages 9 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept as required by section 63 of the Charities Act
 2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
 3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
 4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's qualified statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
