This object is advanced by providing limited monetary grants to the parent or guardian of orphans to aid in the maintenance and education of the orphan(s).

Public Benefit Statement

The trustees confirm they have regard to the Commission's public benefit requirement.

None of the trustees receives any private monetary benefit from their role as trustees. Our charitable purpose as stated above is also set out in our purpose statement available to view on our registration page on the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland website.

The benefit would also be monitored by the minister of the congregational church nominating the orphan(s) to the Society as being a candidate to receive a grant.

Safeguarding

The Trustees remain aware of the 'duty of care' to children. None of the trustees has any close or unsupervised contact with orphans eligible to receive a grant from the Society.

Financial Review

In the current year 10 orphans were in receipt of a grant from the Society.

We also record sincere appreciation to those churches of the Congregational Union of Ireland which have made financial donations to the Society. Although it is the business of the committee to raise funds, the Society does not engage in or promote specific fundraising activity.

The Society's income does not benefit from the Government's 'Gift Aid' scheme for tax payers

Accounts are prepared on an income and expenditure basis and we comply with the requirement to disclose and submit the information required in the Annual Monitoring Return and to publish our accounts in line with our understanding of CCNI guidance.

Our gross income for the year as reported here at 31st January 2025 was £2,437 with expenditure of £5,230.

Statement of Assets and Liabilities

Total unrestricted funds held on account at 31st January 2025:- £66,343.

There are no financial (or otherwise) liabilities either currently or pending save the ongoing grants to orphans ending between 2025 and 2042. These grants are made on a regular basis throughout the year and will be given while funds are available.

While the present demand on the Society's resources is small, there has been a recent uptake in requests for assistance. There are sufficient funds to sustain the work of the Society and the trustees will continue to review the ongoing work and benefits provided.

Signed on behalf of the Trustees:-

Rev Tom Boyle (Chairman of Trustees)

Michael G Porter (Hon Treasurer)
