Objectives and activities

Summary of the objects of the charity set out in its governing document

To provide humanitarian aid to those in need in Belarus, the country worst affect by the Chernobyl disaster. A group travels to Belarus twice yearly to carry out renovation and building projects such as improving kitchens dining halls, bedrooms and bathrooms in various orphanages and provide medical aid

Summary of the main activities undertaken for the public benefit in relation to these objects

In planning our activities for the year we kept in mind the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit at our trustee meetings. The focus of our activities is to raise money to buy medical aid and building materials in order to try and restore normality to the lives of those that were affected by the Chernobyl crisis.
