Independent Examiners' Report on the Unaudited Accounts to Evangelical Protestant Society

I report on the accounts of the Society for the year ended 31st May 2025, which are set out on pages 5 and 6.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act

follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act

That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records

That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT SOCIETY

TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT 1 June 2024 – 31 May 2025

Our work continued in 2024-25 on several fronts, but on a more limited basis than in previous years.

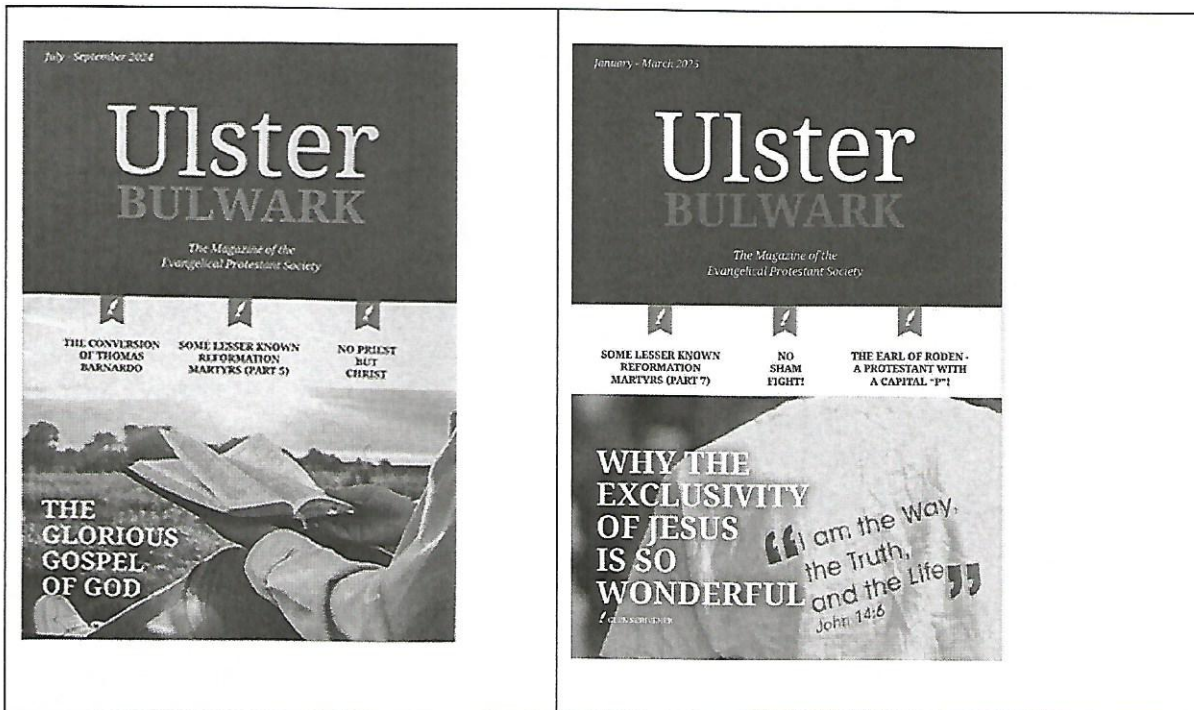

Planning for the future has proved difficult as efforts to strengthen the EPS Council and to find someone younger to take on the role of secretary and magazine editor proved fruitless.

The Council struggled to meet as two key members - the President and Chairman -are both in their 90s and both have health issues. The Council was further weakened by the decision by one of its members, Mr Iain Adams, to resign in September 2024.

The core work of the Society is the production of its quarterly magazine, the "Ulster Bulwark". In his role as consultant, Mr Wallace Thompson continued to produce the magazine.

All editions were designed and printed by Pepper Collective, a company based in Strabane. Targets for production were agreed with Pepper in advance, and all were met. The magazine was issued in early July (July-September 2024), early October (October-December 2024), early January (January-March 2025) and early April (April-June 2025). The magazine is A5 and has 20 pages. It is the main organ for our work and witness.

Throughout the accounting period, we lost some faithful supporters due to death, but new names were also added to our mailing lists on a regular basis and an increasing number of people opted to receive the magazine by PDF.

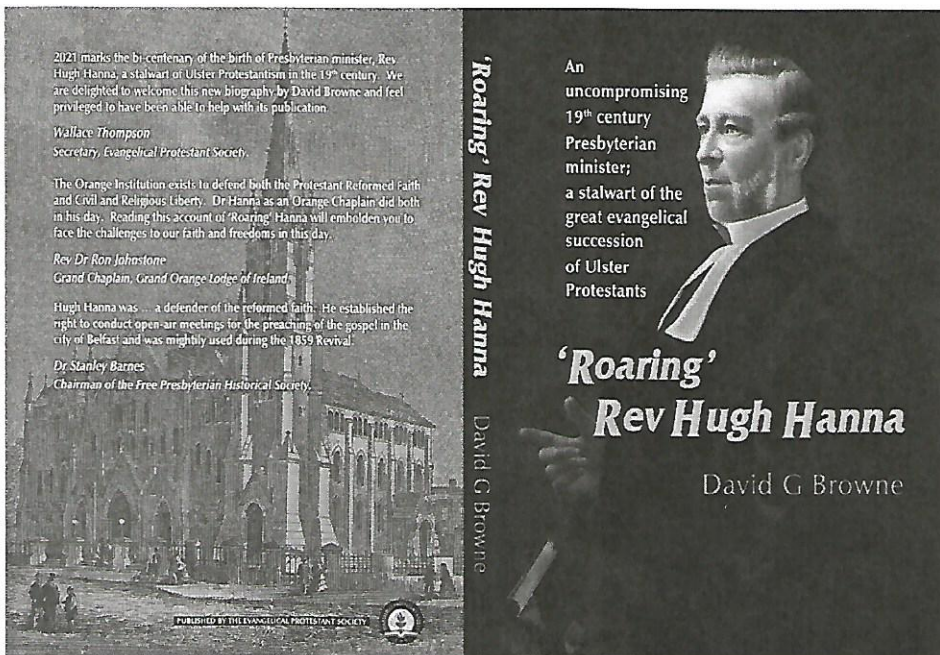

Our Facebook page continued to expand and develop with many new followers being added. This has proved a very successful platform for us. Our website was also regularly updated.

We rely entirely on donations and gifts which are gratefully received throughout the year, and in April 2025 we held our Annual Thanksgiving Appeal.

Evangelical Protestant Society

We continued to promote some literature such as our book on the life and times of Rev Hugh Hanna of Belfast. Written by local author, David Browne, the book casts much light on social, political and religious issues in Ulster in the second half of the 19th century.

The way ahead for EPS at present is uncertain.

We need to secure the services of someone who will fulfil the role of Secretary and magazine editor and who will have a vision for the future. Please pray about this and if you know of anyone who might be suitable, please get in touch with us on epsbulwark@yahoo.com.

Our work continued in 2023-24 on several fronts.

The EPS Council met on Saturday 9 September 2023 and on Saturday 9 December 2023 in Knock Evangelical Presbyterian Church, kindly granted. Several informal discussions took place between meetings.

Mr Wallace Thompson's consultancy contract was renewed based on unchanged terms and conditions, for a further year, to run from 25 February 2024 to 24 February 2025. This arrangement enabled him to continue to carry out vital administrative work for the Council on a remunerated basis.

Our quarterly magazine, the "Ulster Bulwark", continued to be produced and edited by our Secretary, Mr Wallace Thompson. All our editions were designed and printed by Pepper Collective, a company based in Strabane. Targets for production were agreed with Pepper in advance, and all were met. The magazine was issued in early July (July-September 2023), early October (October-December 2023), early January (January-March 2024) and early April (April-June 2024). Our Facebook page continued to expand and develop with many new followers being added. This has proved a very successful platform for us. Our website was also regularly updated. Mr Thompson also participated in several radio debates on moral and spiritual issues.

We rely entirely on donations and gifts which are gratefully received throughout the year, and in April 2024 we held our Annual Thanksgiving Appeal.

We organised a special rally on Friday 15 September 2023 in Clogher Valley Free Presbyterian Church. It was very well attended and was a considerable success. Rev Peter McIntyre spoke on "The Williamite Settlement and the Protestant Throne" and his booklet on that subject, published jointly by Clogher Valley FPC and EPS, was made available on the night.

Evangelical Protestant Society

Our annual EPS Reformation Rally was held on Friday 27 October 2023 in Martyrs Memorial Free Presbyterian Church. Rev Garth Wilson of Sandown Free Presbyterian Church spoke on the subject “Is the Reformation still relevant?” Although the attendance was lower than average, the meeting went well, and literature was sold.

We continued to promote some literature such as our book on the life and times of Rev Hugh Hanna of Belfast. Written by local author, David Browne, the book casts much light on social, political and religious issues in Ulster in the second half of the 19th century.

We are a small organisation and we struggle at times due to limited human and financial resources, but we feel that we have much to offer and we will continue to seek to meet our charitable purposes and mission as best we can in the days that lie ahead.

We would like to add members to our Council of Reference so, if you are interested or know of anyone who might be, please get in touch with us on epsbulwark@yahoo.com. We are particularly keen to recruit those who might be able to help with the preparation and publication of the Ulster Bulwark.

Our work continued in 2022-23 on several fronts.

The EPS Council met on Saturday 26 November 2022 and on Saturday 4 March 2023 in Knock Evangelical Presbyterian Church, kindly granted. Several informal discussions took place between meetings.

At the meeting on 4 March, Mr Wallace Thompson's consultancy contract was renewed on the basis of unchanged terms and conditions, for a further year, to run from 25 February 2023 to 24 February 2024. This arrangement has enabled him to continue to carry out vital administrative work for the Council on a remunerated basis.

We rely entirely on donations and gifts which are gratefully received throughout the year, and in April 2023 we held our Annual Thanksgiving Appeal.

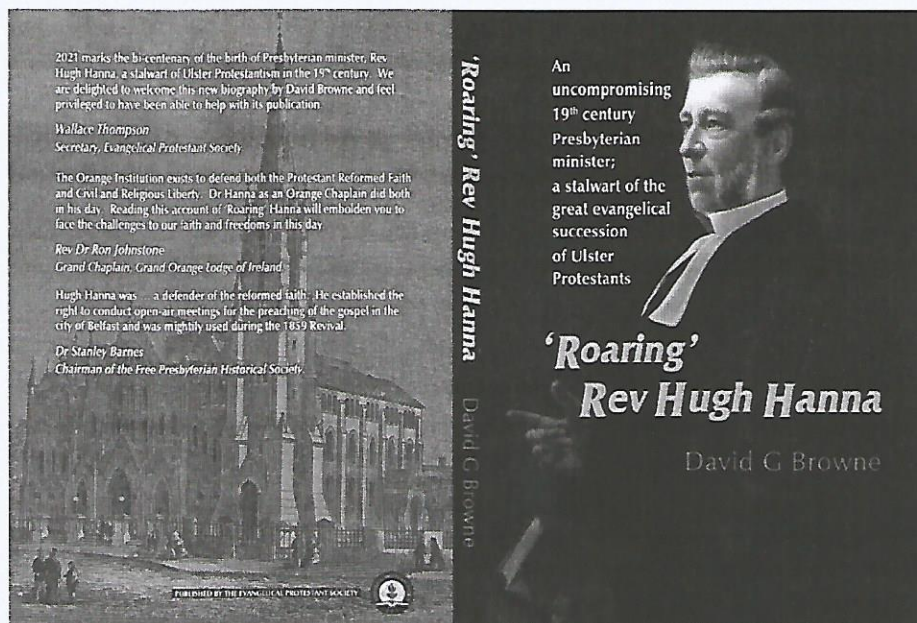

We held our annual Reformation meeting in Martyrs' Memorial Free Presbyterian Church, Belfast, on Friday 28 October 2022. The guest speaker was Rev Daniel Henderson, minister of Moneyslane Free Presbyterian Church. His subject was "Is Protestantism Relevant in the 21st Century?"

Mr Thompson spoke at a Reformation service in Belfast City Mission Hall in Ballybeen on Lord's Day 30 October 2022.

As part of the Semper Reformata Podcasts series, Bob McEvoy chatted to Mr Thompson about issues such as the origins and mission of the EPS, Historical Christianity, Credal Statements, Cultural Protestantism in Northern Ireland, and Protestantism and the Loyal Orders. The podcast was first broadcast on 12 July 2022 and is available at <https://tinyurl.com/4bjwyhju>

Mr Thompson also participated in several radio debates on the issue of Sunday sport.

We continued to promote our book on the life and times of Rev Hugh Hanna of Belfast. Written by local author, David Browne, the book casts much light on social, political and religious issues in Ulster in the second half of the 19th century.

Annual report

EVANGELICAL PROTESTANT SOCIETY
TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT 1 June 2022– 31 May 2023

Our work continued in 2022-23 on several fronts.

The EPS Council met on Saturday 26 November 2022 and on Saturday 4 March 2023 in Knock Evangelical Presbyterian Church, kindly granted. Several informal discussions took place between meetings.

At the meeting on 4 March, Mr Wallace Thompson’s consultancy contract was renewed on the basis of unchanged terms and conditions, for a further year, to run from 25 February 2023 to 24 February 2024. This arrangement has enabled him to continue to carry out vital administrative work for the Council on a remunerated basis.

Our quarterly magazine, the “Ulster Bulwark”, continued to be produced and edited by our Secretary, Mr Wallace Thompson. All our editions were designed and printed by Pepper Collective, a company based in Strabane. Targets for production were agreed with Pepper in advance, and all were met. The magazine was issued in early July (July-September 2022), early October (October-December 2022), early January (January-March 2023) and early April (April-June 2023). The magazine is A5 and has 20 pages.

Throughout the accounting period, new names were added to our mailing lists on a regular basis and an increasing number of people opted to receive the magazine by PDF.

Our Facebook page continued to expand and develop with many new followers being added. This has proved a very successful platform for us. Our website was also regularly updated.

We rely entirely on donations and gifts which are gratefully received throughout the year, and in April 2023 we held our Annual Thanksgiving Appeal.

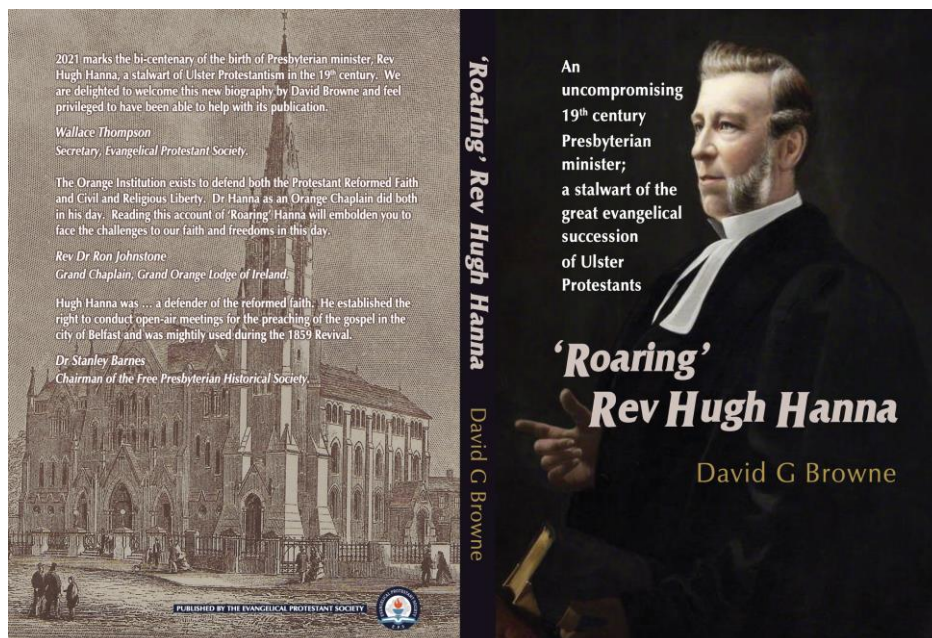

We held our annual Reformation meeting in Martyrs' Memorial Free Presbyterian Church, Belfast, on Friday 28 October 2022. The guest speaker was Rev Daniel Henderson, minister of Moneyslane Free Presbyterian Church. His subject was "Is Protestantism Relevant in the 21st Century?"

Mr Thompson spoke at a Reformation service in Belfast City Mission Hall in Ballybeen on Lord's Day 30 October 2022.

As part of the Semper Reformata Podcasts series, Bob McEvoy chatted to Mr Thompson about issues such as the origins and mission of the EPS, Historical Christianity, Credal Statements, Cultural Protestantism in Northern Ireland, and Protestantism and the Loyal Orders. The podcast was first broadcast on 12 July 2022 and is available at <https://tinyurl.com/4bjwyhju>

Mr Thompson also participated in several radio debates on the issue of Sunday sport.

We continued to promote our book on the life and times of Rev Hugh Hanna of Belfast. Written by local author, David Browne, the book casts much light on social, political and religious issues in Ulster in the second half of the 19th century.

We are a small organisation but we feel that we have much to offer and we will continue to seek to meet our charitable purposes and mission as best we can in the days that lie ahead.

We would like to add members to our Council of Reference so, if you are interested or know of anyone who might be, please get in touch with us on epsbulwark@yahoo.com. We are particularly keen to recruit those who might be able to help with the preparation and publication of the Ulster Bulwark.

Independent Examiners' Report on the Unaudited Accounts to Evangelical Protestant Society

I report on the accounts of the Society for the year ended 31st May 2023, which are set out on pages 5 and 6.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act

follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:
That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act

That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records

That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act

That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
