

NORTH BELFAST HISTORICAL SOCIETY NIC 102097

TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT FOR 2023-2024

The objective of the Society, as set out in the Constitution is the advancement of education by promoting interest in local history with a focus on the North Belfast area.

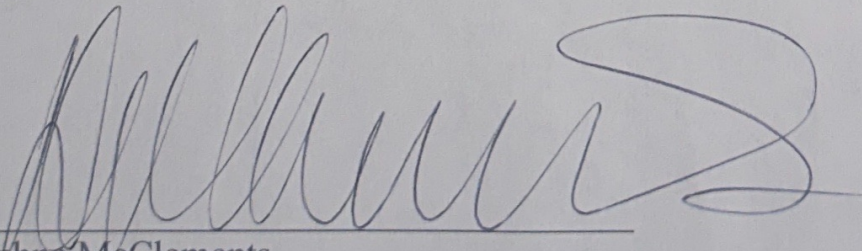

The Society operates in North Belfast but visitors from anywhere are encouraged and welcome to attend our meetings. The Society is open to all regardless of faith, race or personal circumstances.

In setting the objectives and planning the activities for the year, the Trustees considered the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities have helped to achieve the Society's purposes and provide a benefit to the beneficiaries.

We invite specialist speakers to give monthly talks and presentations on a variety of topics from September 2023 to May 2024. Topics covered included:

- Life in the Media
- Austria and Hungary in the Great War
- Belfast in World War II
- Noel Beattie's Travel Memoirs
- Clifton House
- Old House Renovations in North Belfast
- Flying High: The Adventures of an Airline Stewardess
- The Donegall Family
- Biblical History
