Statement by the Trustees

The Trustees state that they have regard to the Commission's Public benefit requirement statutory guidance.

Purpose

Row the Erne (The Club) is a community-based organisations empowering people to build and row traditional craft primarily on the Erne Waterway System in County Fermanagh and throughout the island of Ireland too. The Club has the following purposes:

Purpose 1: To foster and promote the rowing and sailing of traditional boats for all abilities, provide opportunities for recreation and leisure to members of the public who may not, because of their social or economic circumstances, have access to the waterways.

Purpose 2: To provide the facility for boat building to members of the public in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure purposes and to improve the conditions of life of said persons by creating a natural and welcoming environment,

Purpose 3:

- To promote the maritime heritage of the Lough Erne waterway system and to advance the engagement of the community in the conservation and celebration of the maritime heritage.
- To realise social, environment, community development and educational benefits without distinction of age, gender, race, political, religious or other opinion, disability, sexual orientation, marital status or those with or without dependents by associating with relevant organisations and inhabitants in a common effort to support the conservation of maritime heritage through education, learning, conservation projects and recreational activities.
- To establish a range of community focused maritime activities and promote the heritage and use of the resources and any other facilities which would lead to further engagement by the community in maritime heritage conservation and be of benefit to the community.

Public benefits

The public benefits in relation to Row the Erne's purposes are:

Purpose 1: Row the Erne brings people together from all types of backgrounds and social groups to enjoy the waterways.

Purpose 2: The Club has created opportunities of improved health outcomes and reduced levels of stress and anxiety.

Purpose 3: The Club has engaged the public in developing boat building skills, so that the knowledge and activities will continue to grow and be passed on.

These benefits were demonstrated through feedback from the users of the currach through surveys, films and interviews. Many of these videos and pictures were shared on social media to let others know what we were up to and to come along. The charity's beneficiaries are people from all walks of life of all ages and abilities.

Summary of activities and achievements

The Trustees worked alongside members and volunteers of Row the Erne in a range of activities, events and initiatives that benefited the public in line with the Club's purposes.

This section lists the range of activities and achievements of The Club in 2023. It refers to the relevant purpose and public benefit linked to it.

- Boat maintenance: Took place when the currach was off the water in February and March.
- Regular short rows: Row the Erne ran regular evening and weekend rows from April through to early November when the currach was lifted off the water for a winter rest. This benefited the public under purposes 1 and 2. We introduced a whole new group to rowing to improve their physical and mental wellbeing, to have fun and to make new friends.
- Taster rows: The Club ran a day of taster rows as part of the Health Oceans Health Minds initiative in August. This provided many people with the opportunity to get out on the water and row a traditional craft for the first time. This benefited the public under purposes 1 and 2.
- Long rows: We ran several longer rows to challenge the public to push themselves, increase their fitness and invest more in developing their social connections. This benefited the public under purposes 1 and 2. We ran these rows on weekends in Spring, Summer and Autumn.
- Heritage rows: The club secured funding from Fermanagh and Omagh District Council to run an Ulster Scots project 'Approaching Planation Castles from the water'. This gave people a unique perspective of their heritage on and off the water, including workshops from a local historian and expert in traditional boat building.

This benefited the public under purpose 3.

- Heritage rows with children and young people: The club worked with Fermanagh 14th Scouts, Derrylin to fulfil their 'Rowing and Ropes' project funded by the Policing and Community Safety Partnership. A series of rows were held over a number of weeks in Autumn for the children and scout leaders. The children learnt a range of boating skills including how to row a traditional currach and about our natural heritage and how to leave no trace. This benefited the public under purposes 1 and 3.
- Expedition: The club went on a sea expedition to Rathlin in May. This was the first adventure to sea for many of those involved. During the trip we invited the public to look at the currach and we explained how it was built. This trip benefited the public under purposes 1, 2 and 3.

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees

This report relates to the accounts of Row the Erne for the year ended 31st December 2023, which are set out on page 3.

Respective responsibilities of the charity trustees and independent examiner

Trustees

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Independent Examiner

It is my responsibility as independent examiner to:

- Examine the accounts under Section 65 of the Charities Act
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the commission under Section 65 (9) (b) of the charities Act
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent Examiner's Report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under Section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65 (9) (b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison with the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking appropriate explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether there are any material matters the have come to my attention, during the course of this examination, giving me cause to believe:

1. The accounting records were not kept in accordance with Section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. The accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The association may appoint and may terminate the appointment of at least three people to act as Trustee for the purpose of holding any moneys or property belonging to the association. The title to all or any such real and/or personal property which may be required by or for the purposes of the association shall be vested in the Trustees who shall hold such property in trust for the association. The Trustees shall act under the instructions of the Committee who shall, subject to the approval and consent of the association as determined by a General Meeting, have power to fill vacancies among the Trustees.

9. Annual General Meeting

- 9.1 The first Annual General Meeting of the association shall be held not later than twelve months after the Inaugural Meeting and in each year thereafter an AGM of the association shall be held at such place and time (not being more than fifteen months after the holding of the preceding AGM) as the Committee shall determine.
- 9.2 At such Annual General Meeting the business shall include the following:
 - 9.2.1 The election of members to serve on the Committee
 - 9.2.2 The appointment of an independent financial assessor.
 - 9.2.3 The consideration of an Annual Report of the work done by or under the auspices of the Committee.
 - 9.2.4 The consideration of the accounts.
 - 9.2.5 The transaction of such other matters as may from time to time be considered necessary.

10. Special General Meetings

The Committee may at any time at its discretion and shall upon a requisition signed by not less than eight full members having the power to vote and giving reasons for the request, call a Special General Meeting of the association for the purpose of altering the constitution in accordance with Clause 12 hereof or of considering any matter which may be referred to them by the Committee or for any other purpose.

11. Rules of Procedure at all Meetings

Voting

- 11.1 Subject to the provisions of Clause 12 hereof all questions at any meeting shall be decided by a simple majority of those present and entitled to vote thereat. In case of an equality of votes the Chairperson shall have a second or casting vote.

Minutes

- 11.2 Minute books shall be kept by the Committee and all other sub- committees and the appropriate Secretary shall enter therein a record of all proceedings and resolutions.

Quorum

- 11.3 The quorum at General Meetings of the Association shall be 5 and at a committee meeting shall be 3 or other such number as the Committee may from time to time determine.

Standing Orders

- 11.4 The Committee shall have the power to adopt and issue Standing Orders and/or rules for the association. Such Standing Orders and/or rules shall come into operation immediately provided always that they shall be subject to review by the association in General Meeting and shall not be inconsistent with this Constitution.

12. Alterations to the Constitution

- 12.1 Any alterations to this Constitution shall receive the assent of not less than two-thirds of the members of the association present and voting at the Annual General Meeting or a meeting specifically called for such purpose provided that notice of any such alteration shall have been received by the Honorary Secretary in writing not less than 21 clear days before the meeting at which the alteration is to be brought forward.
- 12.2 At least 14 clear days notice in writing of the meeting setting forth the terms of the alteration to be proposed shall be sent by the Honorary Secretary to each member of the association provided further that no alteration shall be made which would cause the association to cease to be a charity at law.

13. Dissolution

- 13.1 If the Committee by simple majority decide at any time that on the grounds of expense or otherwise it is necessary or advisable to dissolve the association they shall call a meeting of all members of the association who have the power to vote of which meeting not less than 21 days notice (stating the terms of the Resolution to be proposed thereat) shall be given.
- 13.2 If such decision shall be confirmed by a simple majority of those present and voting at such meeting, the Committee shall have power to dispose of any assets held by or in the name of the association.
- 13.3 Any assets remaining after the satisfaction of any proper debt and liabilities shall be given or transferred to such other charitable institution or institutions having objects similar to the objects of the association as the Committee decide.

2022 Trustees Report

14 Expulsion and Disciplinary Action

- 14.1 All complaints regarding the behaviour of members should be submitted in writing to the Secretary. This will be investigated by the Club Committee along with 3 current members selected by the committee.
- 14.2 Any member violating any of the rules or regulations of the Club or being adjudged guilty of unsatisfactory conduct may, by resolution of the General Committee, be suspended or expelled.
- 14.3 The General Committee may temporarily suspend or exclude a member from particular activities where it is deemed in the best interests of the Club.
- 14.4 Any member who is temporarily excluded or suspended or has had his/her membership terminated shall have the right to appeal against such decision to an appeal panel which shall comprise of no less than 3 members selected by the committee.

15. Indemnity

The association shall indemnify and keep indemnified every officer, member, volunteer and employee of the association from and against all claims, demands, actions and proceedings (and all costs and expenses in connection therewith or arising therefrom) made or brought against the association in connection with its activities, the action of its officers, members, volunteers or employees, or in connection with its property and equipment but this indemnity shall not extend to liabilities arising from wilful and individual fraud, wrongdoing or wrongful omission on the part of the association or its committee.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of Row the Erne NIC 102251

I report on the accounts of Row the Erne for the year ended 31 December 2022, that are attached.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
