Activities

Purposes: You Are Not Alone Kilkeel (YANA) wants to bring services to Kilkeel and the surrounding areas to help those dealing with mental health issues. The end goal is to have a drop in centre for people who suffer with their mental health. Somewhere within walking distance from the town and doesn't require money or a long time to get there. YANA also wants to educate and bring awareness to the community on mental health issues, where to go when needing help and spotting the signs in others.

What the charity does: The relief of those in need by reason of youth, age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage

How the charity works: Counselling/support, Education/training

Who the charity helps: Mental health
