

The year 24/25 was again a difficult year for the Charity. With less people spending money our income being less than in previous years. Once again we had to cut back on patient transfers and just took whatever amount of patients that our finances allowed. Going forward we plan to increase our fund raising efforts to meet the demand placed on us

The Trustees

NICC