

Trustees Annual Report for the year ended 31 March 2023

The Trustees of Tullyally Community Partnership are pleased to present their report for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Purposes of the Charity

Tullyally Community Partnership is established to enhance and develop the quality of lives of all residents in Tullyally irrespective of their different religious beliefs, political opinion, racial group or gender, and to provide a powerful voice on their behalf.

Main Activities to further the Charity`s purposes for the public benefit

Support educational attainment by promoting early intervention. Create and support the creation of employment opportunities. Support the development of health initiatives to improve life chances. Promote active citizenship through promoting volunteerism through programming. Supporting the development of physical infrastructure through active citizenship.

Main Achievements in the year

During the year we continued to deliver a range of programmes which included Jo Jingles, SureStart programmes, physical activities, adult education and health and wellbeing. The YMCA also continued to deliver our youth programmes with the support of local volunteers. In addition, TCP worked in partnership with Lisneal College for the purpose of providing space for young people who were in difficulty in school to access their studies in the community centre. TCP also worked with Lisneal College to provide GCSE English and Math support classes. Health and Fitness was promoted through programmes such as Boot Camp, Yoga, Zumba, Walking programmes and Circuit Training.

Throughout the year, TCP worked with DCSDC on Good Relations and Community Support programmes which included partnership working with Currynierin Community Association to tackle interface related issues. We also delivered fantastic Halloween and Christmas programmes that involved Bingo, Rickety Wheel, kids disco, toddlers party, Christmas Dinners for older people, Arts & Crafts Sessions and a Fun Day for everyone that included Santa, inflatables, hot drinks and crepes, face painting, children arts & crafts and airbrush tattoos.

The Dare To Dream Project delivered by St. Columbs Park House which strengthened the partnership working with Currynierin Community Association and also funded a number of small community projects which were nominated by local residents was a great success.

TCP continued to support Tullyally Colts Football Club, Tullyally Women`s Group and Glendermott Valley Flute Band as well as developing stronger connections with Currynierin Community Association. This work was further developed with the support of St Columb`s Park House and the Dare to Dream Project.

Public Benefit Statement
