Foyle Deaf Association

Trustees Report

The trustees present their report and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2024.

Objectives and activities

The principal activity of the association during the year under review was that of providing and promoting the facilities for hearing impaired people, particularly in Northern Ireland.

Charity Objectives

Relieve the needs of hearing impaired people particularly in Northern Ireland.

Primarily to provide a centre for deaf people, run by deaf people, to ensure that they are understood and can participate with each other with ease and in a non-discriminatory fashion.

To advance education through sign language; educate people about signed languages; deaf awareness and cultures; promote sign language cultural activities (including the visual and performing arts, music and literary activities) in all its forms; educate the general public by promoting awareness and organising research into the history, folklore and cultural heritage of the sign languages community; promote public events delivered through or taken in sign language; train and develop the skills of people in the sign language field, function as a sign language community organisation and as a language development agency to assist sign language users with issues concerning sign language rights and access to society in sign languages; promote sign language medium education, encourage the growth of early years education and beyond through sign language.

Trustees

The trustees of the charity for the purposes of charity law and throughout this report are collectively referred to as the trustees.

The trustees serving during the year and since the year end were as follows:

Sarah Smith
Patricia Clarke
Daniel McDaid

Trustee's Responsibilities In Relation To The Financial Statements

The trustees of Foyle Deaf Association are responsible for preparing the trustee's Annual Report and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

The trustees are required to prepare financial statements for each financial year, that give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the charitable association and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable association for that period. In preparing these financial statements, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charities SORP 2019 (FRS102);
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- state whether applicable UK Accounting Standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in business.

The trustee's are responsible for maintaining proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charity and enables them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant information of which the charitable association's independent examiner is unaware, and
- the trustee's have taken all the steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant information and to establish that the independent examiner is aware of that information.

A resolution will be proposed at the Annual General Meeting that McGroarty McCafferty & Company Ltd be re-appointed as accountants to the charity for the ensuing year.

Independent examiner's report on the unaudited financial statements to the trustees of Foyle Deaf Association

We report on the accounts of the association for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages 5-13.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner;

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Charities Act (NI) 2008. Having satisfied ourselves that the charity is not subject to audit under company law, and is eligible for independent examination, it is our responsibility to;

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act 2008;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act 2008.
- state whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under Section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included a consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

- that accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act.
- that the accounts do not accord with those accounting records;
- that the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
- that there is further information needed for proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters listed above and, in connection with the following directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, we have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
