Beavers work on a variety of activity and challenge badges culminating in the presentation of Chief Scout Bronze awards after which they move up to Cubs in a 'Swimming Up' ceremony to which parents are invited.

In September beavers spent time getting to know each other and learning the Beaver Promise, and took part in the Investiture Ceremony in November 2022, with parents being able to attend – the first since before the pandemic.

Some of this year's activities included a visit from a fireman teaching Thumbs up for Monday and a closer look at a fireman's uniform, District Bowling event, District Forest Fitness Fun Day Christmas decorations, pantomime and Christmas party.

After Christmas they spend time learning about healthy eating and hobbies, completing their Faith badges and attending the District Beaver quiz.
