Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2025

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St Aidan's Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St Aidan's Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity. As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, St Aidan's Parish Church has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by the select vestry of St Aidan's Parish Church.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Throughout 2025, regular Sunday morning services were held in St Aidan's Parish Church for the advancement and expression of Christian religion. Special services were also held during the seasons of Holy Week, Harvest and Christmas.

There was a weekly morning service during the seasons of Lent and Advent. Regular collections took place for the food bank. Donations of food items used for the decoration of the church at the Harvest Services were distributed to the local Simon Community Hostel in Armagh. Men's hygiene items and towels were also donated by parishioners to the local Simon Community Hostel.

Grange Parish continues to engage constructively with children and young people through the Sunday school integrating those involved into the life of the Parish through the reinforcement of Christian values. The Youth Fellowship has continued to meet with various activities organised to provide a safe environment and a Christian outreach for the young members of the Parish.

Social events for the parishioners included 'padel tennis' and 10-pin bowling.

During the year the refurbishment of the church windows was completed. The Church received financial assistance from the National Churches Trust, Kathleen Day Fund and the Church Fabric Fund. Significant repair work was also required as a result of storm damage to the Church, Talbot Hall and School Masters house.

Grange Parish adheres to the Church of Ireland's "Safeguarding Trust" policy for the protection of children and vulnerable adults. Church members attend training sessions to ensure awareness to best practice.

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2025

The parish maintains artefacts, materials and historic buildings for the benefit of the public and in particular for those appreciative of longstanding Christian heritage. The Parish restricts access to Church buildings for public safety reasons – any visitors who wish to access same for viewing purposes are accompanied by a member of the Church.

Financial Review

Receipts for the Parish from various sources came to £105,343 with payments of £126,895 resulting in a deficit of £21,552.

The Bank and Cash Balance as at 31 December 2025 was £141,311 (of this balance £38,287 were unrestricted funds, £98,910 restricted funds and £4,114 endowment funds).

It is the Trustee's Policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover the on-going running costs of the Parish and any major Church Property maintenance issues that may arise.

Going Concern

The trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Parish can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025 can be signed off as a going concern.

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2025

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document and Constitution of the Charity

Chapter III of the Constitution of the Church of Ireland governs Parishes and Parochial Organisation. The Select Vestry members are the Charity Trustees.

Recruitment and Appointment of Select Vestry (Trustees)

All members of the Church of Ireland who are over the age of 18 and are either resident within the parish or live elsewhere but have been accustomed members of the congregation for at least three months, may register as members of the general vestry of the parish, allowing them to attend and vote at meetings of the general vestry and to stand for election to the select vestry. Meetings of the general vestry are held at least once a year. The Select Vestry is elected as part of this General Vestry meeting. The Select Vestry will hold their positions for a period of one year. Select Vestry members may be re-elected annually and there is no limit on the number of terms that may be served.

Organisational Structure

The Select Vestry is responsible for the day-to-day management of the parish. The Select Vestry consists of the member of the clergy serving in the parish, the churchwardens, the glebe wardens and generally not more than twelve other members of the general vestry elected at the General Vestry.

The Select Vestry is chaired by the incumbent or other member of the clergy officiating in the parish. Select Vestry members are responsible for making decisions on matters of general concern and importance to the parish including deciding how parish funds are to be applied.

The Select Vestry meets at times agreed by the members. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the churchwardens. In 2025 the Select Vestry met 5 times with an average attendance of 11 members.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Trustees' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2025

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with Income of less than £250,000 requires the trustees to prepare a Statement of Receipts and Payments and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Parish's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Parish.

The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Parish and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of St Aidan's Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2025.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the Charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

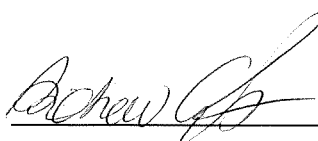

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

1. Accounting Policies

Set out below are the principal accounting policies which have been adopted in the compilation of the Receipts and Payments Account and the Statement of Assets and Liabilities.

- Receipts and Payments Account
All items of income and expenditure included within the Receipts and Payments Account has been accounted for on a cash receipts basis.
- Statement of Assets and Liabilities

Assets retained for the Parish's own use

The assets of the Parish, retained for its own use comprise:-

- Church Building and Graveyard
- Talbot Hall and Old School Masters House
- Parish Centre
- Rectory – Salters Grange
- Glebe Land

Church Building and Graveyard

The Church Building and Graveyard are deemed to be Heritage assets as defined by the Charities SORP (FRS102). These Heritage assets are not included in the statement of assets and liabilities as information on the cost or valuation is not available and such information cannot be obtained at a cost commensurate with the benefit to the users of the accounts and to the parish.

Talbot Hall and Old School Masters House

The Talbot Hall and Old School Masters House are physically located within the grounds of the Church and Graveyard and are not separable as individual assets and as such they are deemed to be Heritage assets and no value is ascribed to them in the statement of assets and liabilities.

Parish Centre

The Parish Centre was built in 1961. There are no reliable records of the cost of construction. The property is well maintained and is stated at insured value.

Rectory – Salters Grange

The Rectory was built in the late 1940's. Since the grouping with Loughgall Parish the Rectory has been privately tenanted. There are no reliable records of the cost of construction. The property is well maintained and is stated at insured value.

Glebe Land

The Glebe land has been estimated at the current market rate for agricultural land.

Notes to the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2025

i) Investments

Fixed asset Investments in RCB/CIT Unit Trusts are initially recorded at cost and are then subsequently stated at fair value at each year end date.

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St Aidan's Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St Aidan's Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity. As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, St Aidan's Parish Church has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by the select vestry of St Aidan's Parish Church.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Throughout 2024, regular Sunday morning services were held in St Aidan's Parish Church for the advancement and expression of Christian religion. Special services were also held during the seasons of Holy Week, Harvest and Christmas.

There was a weekly morning service during the seasons of Lent and Advent. On Sunday 18th of February 2024 there was a 'Service of Confirmation'. After the Service a special lunch was held in the Parish Hall.

Regular collections took place for the food bank. Donations of food items used for the decoration of the church at the Harvest Services were distributed to the local Simon Community Hostel in Armagh. Men's hygiene items and towels were also donated by parishioners to the local Simon Community Hostel.

Grange Parish continues to engage constructively with children and young people through the Sunday school integrating those involved into the life of the Parish through the reinforcement of Christian values. The Youth Fellowship has continued to meet with various activities organised to provide a safe environment and a Christian outreach for the young members of the Parish.

Social events for the parishioners included 'padel tennis' and a Keith & Kristyn Getty concert.

During the year the Select Vestry initiated the process for the refurbishment of the church windows which were in need of vital maintenance. A contractor has commenced the work with assistance towards the costs secured from the National Churches Trust.

Grange Parish adheres to the Church of Ireland's "Safeguarding Trust" policy for the protection of children and vulnerable adults. Church members attend training sessions to ensure awareness to best practice.

The parish maintains artefacts, materials and historic buildings for the benefit of the public and in particular for those appreciative of longstanding Christian heritage. The Parish restricts access to Church buildings for public safety reasons – any visitors who wish to access same for viewing purposes are accompanied by a member of the Church.

Financial Review

Receipts for the Parish from various sources came to £81,009 with payments of £90,163 resulting in a deficit of £9,154.

The Bank and Cash Balance as at 31 December 2024 was £162,863 (of this balance £35,867 were unrestricted funds, £122,882 restricted funds and £4,114 endowment funds).

It is the Trustee's Policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover the on-going running costs of the Parish and any major Church Property maintenance issues that may arise.

Going Concern

The trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Parish can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 can be signed off as a going concern.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document and Constitution of the Charity

Chapter III of the Constitution of the Church of Ireland governs Parishes and Parochial Organisation. The Select Vestry members are the Charity Trustees.

Recruitment and Appointment of Select Vestry (Trustees)

All members of the Church of Ireland who are over the age of 18 and are either resident within the parish or live elsewhere but have been accustomed members of the congregation for at least three months, may register as members of the general vestry of the parish, allowing them to attend and vote at meetings of the general vestry and to stand for election to the select vestry. The Select Vestry is chaired by the incumbent or other member of the clergy officiating in the parish. Select Vestry members are responsible for making decisions on matters of general concern and importance to the parish including deciding how parish funds are to be applied.

The Select Vestry meets at times agreed by the members. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the churchwardens. In 2024 the Select Vestry met 4 times with an average attendance of 12 members.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with Income of less than £250,000 requires the trustees to prepare a Statement of Receipts and Payments and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Parish's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Parish.

The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Parish and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of St Aidan's Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the Charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Grange/St Aidan's/Armagh/Church of Ireland

Northern Ireland - Charity number 104040

Annual report

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St Aidan's Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St Aidan's Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity. As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, St Aidan's Parish Church has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by the select vestry of St Aidan's Parish Church.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Throughout 2024, regular Sunday morning services were held in St Aidan's Parish Church for the advancement and expression of Christian religion. Special services were also held during the seasons of Holy Week, Harvest and Christmas.

There was a weekly morning service during the seasons of Lent and Advent. On Sunday 18th of February 2024 there was a 'Service of Confirmation'. After the Service a special lunch was held in the Parish Hall.

Regular collections took place for the food bank. Donations of food items used for the decoration of the church at the Harvest Services were distributed to the local Simon Community Hostel in Armagh. Men's hygiene items and towels were also donated by parishioners to the local Simon Community Hostel.

Grange Parish continues to engage constructively with children and young people through the Sunday school integrating those involved into the life of the Parish through the reinforcement of Christian values. The Youth Fellowship has continued to meet with various activities organised to provide a safe environment and a Christian outreach for the young members of the Parish.

Social events for the parishioners included 'padel tennis' and a Keith & Kristyn Getty concert.

During the year the Select Vestry initiated the process for the refurbishment of the church windows which were in need of vital maintenance. A contractor has commenced the work with assistance towards the costs secured from the National Churches Trust.

Grange Parish adheres to the Church of Ireland's "Safeguarding Trust" policy for the protection of children and vulnerable adults. Church members attend training sessions to ensure awareness to best practice.

The parish maintains artefacts, materials and historic buildings for the benefit of the public and in particular for those appreciative of longstanding Christian heritage. The Parish restricts access to Church buildings for public safety reasons – any visitors who wish to access same for viewing purposes are accompanied by a member of the Church.

Financial Review

Receipts for the Parish from various sources came to £81,009 with payments of £90,163 resulting in a deficit of £9,154.

The Bank and Cash Balance as at 31 December 2024 was £162,863 (of this balance £35,867 were unrestricted funds, £122,882 restricted funds and £4,114 endowment funds).

It is the Trustee's Policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover the on-going running costs of the Parish and any major Church Property maintenance issues that may arise.

Going Concern

The trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Parish can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 can be signed off as a going concern.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document and Constitution of the Charity

Chapter III of the Constitution of the Church of Ireland governs Parishes and Parochial Organisation. The Select Vestry members are the Charity Trustees.

Recruitment and Appointment of Select Vestry (Trustees)

All members of the Church of Ireland who are over the age of 18 and are either resident within the parish or live elsewhere but have been accustomed members of the congregation for at least three months, may register as members of the general vestry of the parish, allowing them to attend and vote at meetings of the general vestry and to stand for election to the select vestry. Meetings of the general vestry are held at least once a year. The Select Vestry is elected as part of this General Vestry meeting. The Select Vestry will hold their positions for a period of one year. Select Vestry members may be re-elected annually and there is no limit on the number of terms that may be served.

Organisational Structure

The Select Vestry is responsible for the day to day management of the parish. The Select Vestry consists of the member of the clergy serving in the parish, the churchwardens, the glebe wardens and generally not more than twelve other members of the general vestry elected at the General Vestry.

The Select Vestry is chaired by the incumbent or other member of the clergy officiating in the parish. Select Vestry members are responsible for making decisions on matters of general concern and importance to the parish including deciding how parish funds are to be applied.

The Select Vestry meets at times agreed by the members. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the churchwardens. In 2024 the Select Vestry met 4 times with an average attendance of 12 members.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with Income of less than £250,000 requires the trustees to prepare a Statement of Receipts and Payments and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Parish's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Parish.

The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Parish and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of St Aidan's Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2024.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the Charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St Aidan's Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St Aidan's Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity. Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Throughout 2023, regular Sunday morning services were held in St Aidan's Parish Church for the advancement and expression of Christian religion. There were special services during the seasons of Holy Week, Harvest and Christmas.

Regular collections took place for the food bank which was important due to the extreme demand on their services.

Donations of food items used for the decoration of the church at the Harvest Services were distributed and gratefully received by the local Simon Community Hostel in Armagh. Men's hygiene items and towels were also donated by parishioners to the local Simon Community Hostel.

Grange Parish continues to engage constructively with children and young people through the Sunday school integrating those involved into the life of the Parish through the reinforcement of Christian values.

The Youth Fellowship has continued to meet with various activities organised to provide a safe environment and a Christian outreach for the young members of the Parish.

A Bible Study Group met on a regular basis on Wednesday evenings.

The Church was used by the National Churches Trust for an information session on the 22 November 2023 with approximately 25 people in attendance. Mr Malcolm Dawson gave a brief history of the Church and the Molyneux family, who were responsible for the building of the church.

Grange Parish adheres to the Church of Ireland's "Safeguarding Trust" policy for the protection of children and vulnerable adults. Church members attend regular training sessions to ensure awareness to best practice.

The trustees have taken action to safeguard individuals' personal data that is collected, used and stored as a consequence of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into effect in May 2018.

The parish maintains artefacts, materials and historic buildings for the benefit of the public and in particular for those appreciative of longstanding Christian heritage. The Parish restricts access to Church buildings for public safety reasons – any visitors who wish to access same for viewing purposes are accompanied by a member of the Church.

Financial Review

The receipts for the Parish from various sources came to £81,775 with payments of £47,493 resulting in a surplus £34,282. The Bank and Cash Balance as at 31 December 2023 was £172,017 (of this balance £33,097 were unrestricted funds, £134,806 restricted funds and £4,114 endowment funds).

It is the Trustee's Policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover the on-going running costs of the Parish and any major Church Property maintenance issues that may arise.

Going Concern

Annual report

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St Aidan's Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St Aidan's Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity. As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, St Aidan's Parish Church has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by the select vestry of St Aidan's Parish Church.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Throughout 2023, regular Sunday morning services were held in St Aidan's Parish Church for the advancement and expression of Christian religion. There were special services during the seasons of Holy Week, Harvest and Christmas.

Regular collections took place for the food bank which was important due to the extreme demand on their services.

Donations of food items used for the decoration of the church at the Harvest Services were distributed and gratefully received by the local Simon Community Hostel in Armagh. Men's hygiene items and towels were also donated by parishioners to the local Simon Community Hostel.

Grange Parish continues to engage constructively with children and young people through the Sunday school integrating those involved into the life of the Parish through the reinforcement of Christian values.

The Youth Fellowship has continued to meet with various activities organised to provide a safe environment and a Christian outreach for the young members of the Parish.

A Bible Study Group met on a regular basis on Wednesday evenings.

The Church was used by the National Churches Trust for an information session on the 22 November 2023 with approximately 25 people in attendance. Mr Malcolm Dawson gave a brief history of the Church and the Molyneux family, who were responsible for the building of the church.

Grange Parish adheres to the Church of Ireland's "Safeguarding Trust" policy for the protection of children and vulnerable adults. Church members attend regular training sessions to ensure awareness to best practice.

The trustees have taken action to safeguard individuals' personal data that is collected, used and stored as a consequence of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) which came into effect in May 2018.

The parish maintains artefacts, materials and historic buildings for the benefit of the public and in particular for those appreciative of longstanding Christian heritage. The Parish restricts access to Church buildings for public safety reasons – any visitors who wish to access same for viewing purposes are accompanied by a member of the Church.

Financial Review

The receipts for the Parish from various sources came to £81,775 with payments of £47,493 resulting in a surplus £34,282. The Bank and Cash Balance as at 31 December 2023 was £172,017 (of this balance £33,097 were unrestricted funds, £134,806 restricted funds and £4,114 endowment funds).

It is the Trustee's Policy to hold sufficient reserves to cover the on-going running costs of the Parish and any major Church Property maintenance issues that may arise.

Going Concern

The trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Parish can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2023 can be signed off as a going concern.

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document and Constitution of the Charity

Chapter III of the Constitution of the Church of Ireland governs Parishes and Parochial Organisation. The Select Vestry members are the Charity Trustees.

Recruitment and Appointment of Select Vestry (Trustees)

All members of the Church of Ireland who are over the age of 18 and are either resident within the parish or live elsewhere but have been accustomed members of the congregation for at least three months, may register as members of the general vestry of the parish, allowing them to attend and vote at meetings of the general vestry and to stand for election to the select vestry. Meetings of the general vestry are held at least once a year. The Select Vestry is elected as part of this General Vestry meeting. The Select Vestry will hold their positions for a period of one year. Select Vestry members may be re-elected annually and there is no limit on the number of terms that may be served.

Organisational Structure

The Select Vestry is responsible for the day to day management of the parish. The Select Vestry consists of the member of the clergy serving in the parish, the churchwardens, the glebe wardens and generally not more than twelve other members of the general vestry elected at the General Vestry.

The Select Vestry is chaired by the incumbent or other member of the clergy officiating in the parish. Select Vestry members are responsible for making decisions on matters of general concern and importance to the parish including deciding how parish funds are to be applied.

The Select Vestry meets at times agreed by the members. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the churchwardens. In 2023 the Select Vestry met 4 times with an average attendance of 12 members.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

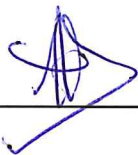

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with Income of less than £250,000 requires the trustees to prepare a Statement of Receipts and Payments and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for each financial year.

The trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Parish's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Parish.

The trustees are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Parish and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Annual return

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of St Aidan's Parish Church

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 December 2023.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the Charity trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- to follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of the independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. The accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements if the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland; I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
