A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

There are 24 girls in the unit.

We worked on a variety of badges throughout the year with some girls earning their bronze and silver awards. This included the Girlguiding Ulster - Ulster Scots badge.

We attended the cinema along with the other units from around the county for a special showing of Wish.

There were 3 girls who were the age to move up to Brownies and 7 new girls this year and all new girls made their promise in front of their family and friends during a very special meeting.

We also celebrated Thinking Day within our unit and attended the Thinking Day service at our local church along with the Brownies.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

Trustees are aware of the public benefit.

A review of the Charity's financial position at the end of the year

We are in a good financial position. Our opening balance was £120.01 and our closing balance was £537.29.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 1st Lisbellaw Rainbow Unit

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2024

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
