The Trustees present the Annual Report and Statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for St. John's Parish Church Ballinderry for the year 31st December 2023.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of The Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of St. John's Church of Ireland Parish Church Ballinderry is to support the advancement of the Christian religion by promoting, through the work of the St. John's Parish Church Ballinderry, the whole mission of the church, pastoral, evangelistic, social and ecumenical. As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, St. John's Church of Ireland Parish Church Ballinderry has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by The Select Vestry of St. John's Church of Ireland Parish Church Ballinderry.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

The Advancement of the Christian Religion.

The Parish Church exists primarily, and above all else, as a place of Christian worship. Services of public worship are held on Sundays throughout the year at 12.15pm. Holy Communion is celebrated once a month and Morning Prayer (Holy Baptism as requested) for the other Sundays of the month. Weekday services such as Mothers' Union Holy Communion, Ash Wednesday Service, Harvest Service and Confirmation with Holy Communion take place in the Parish Church. Holy Week Services focusing on the central pillar of the Christian faith, the death and resurrection of Jesus occur each year.

The Parish is in the terminology of the Church of Ireland, mostly 'resident' members with a small number of 'accustomed' (persons living outside the parish boundary) members. The average number of parishioners in 2023 for Sunday worship would be 25. This is a relatively small parish and the range of parishioners is from 5yrs to 80yrs.

Worship and Pastoral Care.

The Parish Church is chosen by parishioners to mark significant events in their family life. In the course of 2023 the following took place – Holy Baptisms, Weddings and Funeral services. Other Pastoral Care, such as visiting the sick at home or in hospital was carried out on a regular basis as and when required.

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

The Advancement of the Christian Religion.

The Parish Church exists primarily, and above all else, as a place of Christian worship. Services of public worship are held on Sundays throughout the year at 12.15pm. Holy Communion is celebrated once a month and Morning Prayer (Holy Baptism as requested) for the other Sundays of the month. Weekday services such as Mothers' Union Holy Communion, Ash Wednesday Service, Harvest Service and Confirmation with Holy Communion take place in the Parish Church. Holy Week Services focusing on the central pillar of the Christian faith, the death and resurrection of Jesus occur each year.

The Parish is in the terminology of the Church of Ireland, mostly 'resident' members with a small number of 'accustomed' (persons living outside the parish boundary) members. The average number of parishioners in 2022 for Sunday worship would be 30. This is a relatively small parish and the range of parishioners is from 5yrs to 80yrs.

Worship and Pastoral Care.

The Parish Church is chosen by parishioners to mark significant events in their family life. In the course of 2022 the following took place – Holy Baptisms, Weddings and Funeral services. Other Pastoral Care, such as visiting the sick at home or in hospital was carried out on a regular basis as and when required.

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.
