A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

The Unit began the year with 7 Rangers. A varied programme of activities enabled 3 to gain Silver and 4 gain Gold Girlguiding awards.

4 Rangers travelled by train to join the guide weekend Camp at Dunluce Guide House on the North Coast, where they helped with organising activities and cooking.

In September 3 rangers left for University and pressure from exams meant the remaining girls attended less often. However one Ranger continued as a Young Leader with the guides.

The Unit collected and donated food and toiletries to the South Belfast Food Bank. at Christmas.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities' purposes and there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

All Trustees are legally obliged to have regard to this guidance.

All Trustees are aware of our Public benefit Statement on promoting young women to help them develop emotionally, mentally, and physically.

A review of the Charity's financial position at the end of the year

The Unit is in a good financial position.
