There were ten girls in the unit. In the first term the girls worked towards their Take Action Skills Builder Badge. They also completed the first part of their Mixology badge. They joined with Gilnahirk guides to go to watch an Ice Hockey competition. They found a Geocache at the A. Ibert Clock. We went for a Pizza meal and had a Christmas quiz. Then Christmas crafts and Christmas Party.

In the second term there were 11 guides worked towards the Live Smart Skills Builder badge, Looked at ways to keep the Guide Laws. In Patrols they prepared an International evening featuring Romania, India and Italy. They had a quiz and pizza night, played captain Ball.

In the third term we made preparations for our residential weekend. This was held at Lorne and the girls completed their Mixology badge and their Camp skills Builder badge. There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no private benefit.
