

Rainbow's trustee report,

Joanne McNally took over Rainbow in September 2018, the cost of Rainbows in terms on the census has significantly increased and is to increase again this year.

The hall is give rent free by the Church but a voluntary contribution is given each year.

The rainbows funds are spent on resources which include paper, card, paint, glitter etc., the rainbows also had a session of rhythm and rhyme.

Joanne McNally will be stepping down as Rainbow leader Sept 2023