A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

Charity Trustees are legally obliged to have regard to this guidance. Please confirm in this box that all Trustees are aware of this. Please see section 4 of the Trustees' Annual Report and Public Benefit reporting document this can be downloaded from the Girlguiding Ulster website.

I can confirm that all Trustees are aware of the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance and have adhered to it.

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

We had 14 girls during 2023.

Trips – Dundonald Ice Bowl for kids 10 pin bowling, educational visit to Belvoir Forest Park and an educational visit to Knock Fire Station. We all went to the Christmas Panto at Stranmillis College and attended the Girlguiding Divisional Christmas Carol Service.

We had an educational visit from Cats Protection. Jo Jingles came along for a musical exercise class. We also did badge work and the girls got their Agility, Drawing and First Aid stage 1 and 2 badges.

Craft – made jewellery, painted stones to hide in the park, planted bulbs

Cookery - Made Pancakes and decorated them and made Christmas cupcakes

We collected used postage stamps to help raise much needed funds for Crosskeen Lane Animal Sanctuary

I can confirm that there was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no private benefit.

A review of the Charity's financial position at the end of the year

State in this box the overall financial position, if relevant include details of any debts or any reserves policy. Include current and previous financial figures for income and expenditure, these should be taken from the receipts and payments accounts.
