The 155th Belfast Rainbow Unit has enjoyed a successful year, with 21 girls enrolled and names on a waiting list.
After the disruption of Covid, we now have girls of all ages between 4 and 7 year, providing a breadth of experience and ability and stability as older girls move on into Brownies.
New recruits were enrolled as full members of the Rainbows at several special ceremonies to which parents and friends were invited. Time was spent developing relationships with parents and building a community.
During the year we completed all the badges in the Express Myself Theme and these were presented at our final meeting in June which took the form of a trip to Streamvale Farm. In September we started to work on the Be Well Theme.
During the year the Unit took part in a Youth Carol Service and Thinking Day service at Gilnahirk Presbyterian Church.
