Activities

Purposes: The Purposes of the church of the firstborn are: 1. To worship and serve God and to fulfil the great commission of Jesus Christ as set forth in Matthew 28v 19 & 20. 2. To minister to the needs of the members and others as the church is able to do so. 3. Not to accept any form of ecclesiastical constitution or authority other than that formed and accepted by the church meeting under the guidance of the Holy Spirit. 4. To maintain a centre of Christian life and influence in the community. 5. To develop a depth of Spiritual knowledge and commitment within the fellowship and proclaim clearly to those outside of the fellowship the love of God offered towards them and in particular the need, truth and assurance of Salvation.
