Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of Leckpatrick Parish Church

I report on the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities of Leckpatrick Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on pages 1 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing receipts and payments accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. An examination includes a review of the accounting records held by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with charity legislation in Northern Ireland.
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of charity legislation in Northern Ireland.

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

- state whether particular matters have come to my attention

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. An examination includes a review of the accounting records held by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with charity legislation in Northern Ireland.
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of charity legislation in Northern Ireland.

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

The trustees present the annual report and statements of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for Leckpatrick Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2022.

Objectives and Activities

The charitable purpose of the Church of Ireland is the advancement of religion.

The principal function of Leckpatrick Parish Church is to support the advancement of the Christian religion by promoting, through the work of Leckpatrick Parish Church the whole mission of the Church, pastoral, evangelistic, social and ecumenical. Being open to and engaging with society as a whole and offering support for those needing help are fundamental to the practical delivery of the benefits of Christianity.

As a result of activity in the pursuit of the advancement of the Christian religion, Leckpatrick Parish Church has custody of property and of records, materials and artefacts of significance to the cultural and religious heritage and maintenance of which is undertaken by the Select Vestry of Leckpatrick Parish Church.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Church services and activities throughout the year resumed following relaxation of COVID restrictions, albeit with strictly controlled measures in place to ensure safety of worshippers. The Incumbent has continued to live stream services on a Sunday morning for those who are still unable to attend on a Sunday morning.

In normal times the church achieves its objectives by the holding of regular religious services and also holding various youth and other activities for the benefit of the local community. The church holds regular public worship services on Sundays and also on Wednesdays and Fridays during other periods within the Christian liturgical calendar. As part of the Church's pastoral care to each church family, Sunday School is held each Sunday during school terms. The Trustees have a child protection policy in place under the control of a Safeguarding Trust Committee.

Outside of the worship services, the church normally engages in several outreach programmes into the local community, through organisations such the luncheon club (for the senior citizens of the parish), pastoral visitations are carried out by the Incumbent and trained pastoral visitors to the infirmed, elderly and bereaved. Visits are also made to nursing homes where prayers are held, hymns sung and bible readings narrated.

The Church also organises an annual fundraising event which is open to everyone in the local community.

The Church Hall is provided for use by other community groups such as Girl Guides, Women's Institute, Mothers' Union and bowling club.

The minister serves on the Board of Governors for Artigarvan Primary School.

The Parish has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Parish's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Rev Canon Paul Whittaker retired in March 2023 and his replacement has not yet been appointed. The work of the congregation continues with temporary cover arranged by the Diocese and the Rural Dean, Rev Canon David McBeth.

Financial Review

The Parish had an excess of receipts over payments of £12,506 for the year ended 31 December 2022.

The Parish continues to be in a healthy financial state as at 31 December 2022 with total cash funds of £166,846.

The trustees consider that the unrestricted funds of the church have sufficient resources and assets available which are adequate to fulfil their obligations. A detailed analysis of parish income and expenditure is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Going Concern

The trustees have reviewed the budgets for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Parish can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022 can be signed off as a going concern.

The Select Vestry meets at times fixed by the members or by the Diocesan Synod. Special meetings may be convened at any time by the chairperson or the churchwardens. In 2022 the Select Vestry met 3 times and the average attendance was 75%.

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of Leckpatrick Parish Church

I report on the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities of Leckpatrick Parish Church for the year ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 1 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the charity's trustees, you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. The charity's trustees consider that an audit is not required for this year under section 65(2) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 (the Charities Act) and that an independent examination is needed. The charity is preparing receipts and payments accounts and I am qualified to undertake the examination.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts
- follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. An examination includes a review of the accounting records held by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently no opinion is given as to whether the accounts present a true and fair view and the report is limited to those matters set out below.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with charity legislation in Northern Ireland.
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of charity legislation in Northern Ireland.

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
