The financial year the report relates to:

1st February 2023 – 31st January 2024

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

The average membership for the year was 26 girls. Throughout the year girls had the opportunity to make decisions for themselves regarding programme planning and activities. They took part in badge work, games, crafts, County Craft Challenge, promise party and had a county outing to the Cinema. The rainbows also had a fun fitness evening, completed the Ulster Scots badge, celebrated Chinese New Year and Burns night. For thinking day we talked about the guiding centres in Switzerland and Africa.

Our aim is to help each girl reach her full potential while having fun in a safe girl-only space.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

All Trustees are aware of the Commission's Public Benefit requirement.

A review of the Charity's financial position at the end of the year

The financial position at the end of the year remains satisfactory. There are no debts.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 1st Ballygawley Rainbow Guides.

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31st January 2024.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
