Trustees Report

The Trustees present the Annual Report and Statements of the Receipts and Payments and Assets and Liabilities for Regenerate for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Objectives Of the Charity

The Charitable purposes of Regenerate are:

The advancement and citizenship or Community Development –

- Providing support and opportunities to individuals and communities; promoting active citizenship and developing their capacity and skills, in such a way that they are better able to identify and help meet their needs and enable them to participate more fully in society as responsible citizens through participation in decision making processes in any matters which may affect the area.
- Create a collective voice for the community and voluntary sector and work in partnership with statutory agencies and authorities.

The advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation or the promotion of religious or racial harmony or equality and diversity –

- Promote social cohesion, religious and racial harmony and equality and diversity.

The advancement of education –

- Assisting and supporting projects which seek to address low educational attainment.
- Acting as a resource for young people by providing advice and assistance organising programmes of educational and other activities.

As a result of activity in the pursuit of the above charitable purposes, Regenerate have engaged with people and communities regardless of background and supported them to build a stronger, safer and more connected community.

Activities of the Charity

Regenerate continues to build on engagement from our community space opened in March 2016. During the reporting period we engaged with approx. 9,000 people across Portadown, Lurgan and Banbridge.

Activities of the charity include practical and strategic support to individuals and community groups and helping to drive and deliver improvements for them through liaises with statutory and voluntary partners, Regenerate aims to reduce social isolation and act as a platform to deliver craft sessions, a Christmas programme and community Health & Safety events.

Other activities include youth summer schemes, Irish History Talks and trips, the launch of a Christmas Toy Appeal and projects around bonfires and interfaces, as well as highlighting various support groups. The charity also partners with Southern Regional College and Bakers Food and Allied Workers Union to deliver training in Essential Skills in ICT.

Previous Projects: Covid Response, Flags and Bonfires Protocol Agreement. Keep me Safe, Child Protection, Y Zone Youth Hut. First Aid, Basic Food Hygiene.

Achievements, Performance & Public Benefit

Regenerate have built a strong operational base and excellent working partnerships with community, other voluntary and statutory partners. A number of strong projects have been developed and maintained both in our community space and also in communities across Portadown and key links with groups in Lurgan and Banbridge. The community hub and outreach initiative recorded an annual footfall of approx. 9,000 people and deliver the following activities:

- Support to other groups

The charity has supported a number of other community groups to develop action plans, build capacity and successfully lobby for change and improvement in their areas of operation.

Carers Unite Providing a monthly meeting space for the group.

Rectory Community Action Group (RCAG) – meet every month.

RCAG Community Café

This inter-generational project meets weekly at the Regenerate Building and aims to reduce social isolation and serve as a platform to deliver key community messages and initiatives. Focusing on positive mental health and wellbeing Community Cafe has worked with Council to host cookery demonstrations, Tai Chi and craft sessions. The Café has organised Christmas Fairs, Summer Fun Days and Day trips. Conservation volunteers have promoted gardening and outdoor Community spaces, creating a designated outdoor area for French Boules shared with the Veterans group. The group has connected with similar groups across the Portadown and Lurgan area to come together for Christmas Lunch and events under the umbrella heading Café Unity.

The Corcrain Redmanville Community Partnership (CRCP) - aims to promote good relations and deliver projects within the area to benefit residents.

BOATA Men's Shed – Provision of Governance Support by Regenerate.

Weekly use of their facilities in connection with the Veterans.

War Graves - The project research and maintains the historical stories of the veterans who served and died during the world wars. The project has published a number of reference books and hosted tours of the local areas of interest.

Veterans Group - A support group to Veterans offering social activities such as Breakfasts, BBQs, Model Making, Karting, Fishing, Residential trips and providing information or signposting to other services. The Veterans were shortlisted in the Community Award category and achieved a Silver in the Volunteer of the Year category at the Veterans Awards NI, 2022.

- Education

Regenerate partners with Southern Regional College to provide Essential Skills in ICT. Regenerate also runs Human Rights courses and Irish History talks and field trips, in addition to Governance Support for other groups.

- School Uniforms Support

Regenerate provides donated school uniform for children across the Portadown and Lurgan area free of charge.

- Cost of Living Crisis and Christmas Toy Appeal

By working in partnership with local groups and food providers, Regenerate collected new and used toys and accepted referrals for delivery of both toys and food hampers over the Christmas period. Regenerate also regularly supports Youth Engagement summer activities and trips.

- Flags & Bonfires

Regenerate continues to facilitate a flags protocol in Portadown and are working with a number of bonfires to facilitate improvements.

The activities outlined above demonstrate how Regenerate continues to implement its charitable purposes of:

- The advancement of citizenship or community development
- The advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation or the promotion of religious or racial harmony or equality and diversity
- The advancement of education

and meets the Public Benefit requirements.

Benefit to members include:

- Increased opportunity and capacity to play an active role in Community
- Safer, better connected and welcoming communities
- Increased capacity by individuals to make positive impact on their community
- Improved educational opportunity and employment prospects

We expect the out workings of our activities to develop stronger, safer, united communities, where people matter to each other and life is valued and enjoyed.

Regenerate has mitigated any potential harm from the activities through employer, public liability, trustee indemnity insurance, developing relevant policies and training and observance of good practice.

Regenerate has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission of Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit (PBR1) to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve Regenerate's objectives and activities, as well as providing public benefit.

Financial Review

The principal source of income of Regenerate continues to be from Donations and Grants

The principal expense of Regenerate is in respect of payments regarding community activities and transport.

Regenerate had an excess of receipts over payments before other gains of -£3,186.64 for the year ended 31 March 2023

Regenerate continues to be in a healthy financial state as of 31 March 2023 with a total cash funds of £12,480.08.

Regenerate aims to retain sufficient reserves to meet its unexpected future expenditure requirements as well as potential future capital projects.

Structure, Governance and Management

Going Concern

The Trustees have reviewed its planned expenditure for the year ahead and are satisfied that there are adequate funds in place to ensure that the Charity can continue its activities and the financial statements for the year ended 31 March 2023 can be signed off as a going concern.

Governing Document

The Charity is regulated by the Charities Act 2008 and the Constitution and Rules of the Charity adopted on 22nd September 2014.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Membership of Regenerate is open to individuals aged 18 or over, who live or work in, or have some other established connection with the area of benefit and are interested in furthering the work of the Charity. Or any corporate body or unincorporated association that is based or operates within the area of benefit and is interested in furthering the Charity's work.

The Charity in general meeting shall elect the Trustees for a period of one year. The election of a Trustee will require at least three-quarters majority of those voting to vote in favour. The Officers shall be elected annually by and from the members of the Committee at their first meeting following the AGM. The Trustees may appoint any person who is willing to act as a Trustee. Such a resolution to appoint a Trustee shall require the approval of at least three-quarters of those voting. A retiring Trustee shall be eligible for re-election.

Organisational Structure

The Management Committee is the governing body of Regenerate and consists of all the appointed Trustees of the Charity. Under the rules of the Charity, the Trustees must number at least six. The majority of the Trustees offer themselves up for re-election each year at the Annual General Meeting under the terms of the Constitution of the association. At the Annual General Meeting on 3rd April 2023 all existing Trustees stood for election and were elected unopposed. Anne Gillespie joined the Committee.

Regular Committee meetings were held between April 2022 and March 2023. Further informal meetings were held during the year to deal with routine business as necessary.

The Committee reviewed financial matters at each full committee meeting. The Treasurer presented a financial forecast for the members of the year to the Trustees at each of those meetings and its implications were considered and discussed. Budget forecasts are made on a conservative estimate of potential funding and costs to ensure financial viability.

The accounts are presented annually to the membership for discussion and approval, following independent inspection.

Compliance with Public Benefit

The Charity has given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities entered into during the year have helped to achieve the Charity's objectives as well as providing public benefit.

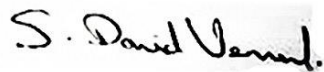

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the Trustees' Report and the Statement of Receipts and Payments and Statement of Assets and Liabilities in accordance with applicable law and regulations.

The law applicable to charities in Northern Ireland with income of less than £250,000 requires the Trustees to prepare a Statement of Receipts and Payments and a Statement of Assets and Liabilities for each Financial Year.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the Charity's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the assets and liabilities of the Charity. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

NIC 104928

Independent Examiners Report to the Trustees of Regenerate

I report on the accounts of Regenerate for the year ended 31 March 2023.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner.

As the charity's Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act.
- Follow the procedures laid down in the General Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9) (b) of the Charities Act.
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9) (b) of the Charities Act.

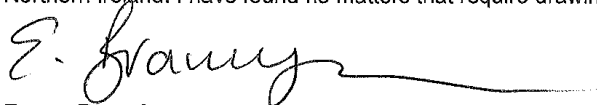

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity Trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland. I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
