Through out the year girls enjoyed a variety of activities beginning with a Disney Princess inspired night at the start of the year to celebrate returning to Brownies after the summer break and being in our new church halls which gave us more room and greater options for activities.

Brownies attended church services twice for harvest and remembrance services.

Brownies took part in a 2 night residential event where the theme was "Duck quacks don't echo" Girls conducted 10 practical science experiments at this event, some of which were replicated at a parents evening at the end of the year.

As a group girls completed their Healthy Heart Interest badge.

We also had several visitors join us for activities throughout the year including Explore Learning NI, Life Guards and Zumba with Joy.

For Thinking Day the girls learnt about the lack of education for girls around the world and were encouraged to examine the importance of education for everyone and the benefits of receiving an education.

We had approx 12 girls attending on a regular basis and during the year 2 girls made their brownie promise and 1 moved up to Guides.

The Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

At the end of the year the financial position is good with no deficits or debts and £69 held in reserve.
