INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE CHARITY TRUSTEES OF DUNLOY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

We report on the accounts of Dunloy Development Partnership for the period ended 31 December 2024, which are set out on pages 4 to 11

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees (and also director of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Ireland.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions relating to companies subject to the small companies regime within Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006.

Achievements; Performance and Financial Review

The 2022 financial year reports a return to pre Covid rental levels. Against this, costs escalated as a result of energy costs and repairs. The company secured grants during the year which continued to support the ongoing running costs.

The loss for the year after depreciation and taxation amounted to £26,410. The profit for the year before depreciation charge and deferred grant release was £3,063.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The company's ongoing activities are dependent upon the continued support of the Diocese of Down and Connor who have undertaken not to call in the loan but will work with Dunloy Development Partnership on timing of payments subject to cashflow.

Small company provisions

This report has been prepared in accordance with the Small Companies regime under the Companies Act 2006.

Approved by the Board and Trustees on 18th June 2024 and signed on its behalf by:

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE CHARITY TRUSTEES OF DUNLOY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

We report on the accounts of Dunloy Development Partnership for the period ended 31 December 2023, which are set out on pages 4 to 11

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees (and also director of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Ireland.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

The financial statements were authorised for issue by the Board on 18th June 2024.

2. Principal accounting policies

Public benefit entity

Dunloy Development Partnership meets the definition of a public benefit entity under the Charities SORP FRS102.

Summary of significant accounting policies and key accounting estimates

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, FRS102 (Charities SORP FRS102), the Charities Act 2011 and the Companies Act 2006.

Basis of preparation and accounting period

These financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost convention and the accruals basis.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The company's ongoing activities are dependent upon the continued support of the Diocese of Down and Connor who have undertaken not to call in the loan but will work with Dunloy Development Partnership on timing of payments subject to cashflow.

If the going concern basis were not appropriate adjustments would have to be made to reduce the value of assets to their recoverable amount, to provide for any further liabilities that may arise and to reclassify fixed assets to current assets and long term liabilities to current liabilities.

Rental income

Rental income represents total rental income accrued for the accounting period.

DUNLOY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

Co Antrim
BT44 9AN

The financial statements were authorised for issue by the Board on 29th September 2023.

2. Principal accounting policies

Public benefit entity

Dunloy Development Partnership meets the definition of a public benefit entity under the Charities SORP FRS102.

Summary of significant accounting policies and key accounting estimates

The principal accounting policies applied in the preparation of these financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

Statement of compliance

These financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Accounting and Reporting by Charities: Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland, FRS102 (Charities SORP FRS102), the Charities Act 2011 and the Companies Act 2006.

Basis of preparation and accounting period

These financial statements have been prepared using the historical cost convention and the accruals basis.

Going concern

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis. The company's ongoing activities are dependent upon the continued support of the Diocese of Down and Connor who have undertaken not to call in the loan but will work with Dunloy Development Partnership on timing of payments subject to cashflow.

If the going concern basis were not appropriate adjustments would have to be made to reduce the value of assets to their recoverable amount, to provide for any further liabilities that may arise and to reclassify fixed assets to current assets and long term liabilities to current liabilities.

Rental income

Rental income represents total rental income accrued for the accounting period.

DUNLOY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE CHARITY TRUSTEES OF DUNLOY DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIP

We report on the accounts of Dunloy Development Partnership for the period ended 31 December 2022, which are set out on pages 4 to 11

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees (and also director of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006.
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Ireland.
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
