Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 1 Charitable Company

I report on the accounts of the charity for the Year Ended 31st March 2025.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees (and also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006. Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland,

I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Fibromyalgia Support N I Has moved our office. We provide support via phone and emails, information can be requested. Sufferers who would direct help assistance can be made via an appointment.

Activities and Objectives.

Trustees meet regularly to discuss the running of the charity. We discuss the amount of information being sent to sufferers, and if this needs to be updated.

We organise awareness days and information evenings throughout the year with various speakers sharing their knowledge with the trustees and the public.

Achievements and Performance

Throughout the year we work hard to make the public and the general practitioners aware of this chronic condition.

We attend seminars and talks also distributing relevant information. We have been able to help many people via phone, emails, and appointments.

We held a very successful Medical Conference on 23rd September 2023 in New Life Church Northumberland Street Belfast BT13 2JF. Our speakers were made up of pain consultants and pharmaceutical knowledge. We have had awareness days in Coleraine and Derry.

Public Benefit

Fibromyalgia Support N I enables those who have FMS to better live their lives and manage their condition. This helps them live a fuller life.

We see this clearly through the feedback we receive from sufferers, carers, and medical professionals.
