STRUCTURE AND MANAGEMENT

The Kirk Session

The charity trustees of the congregation are the members of its Kirk Session. Under the congregation's governing document, The Code, the book of the constitution and government of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, the Kirk Session seeks to watch over and promote the spiritual interest of the congregation and of persons not connected with any congregation who are within its bounds. It ensures pastoral care is in place in the congregation and seeks to further the contribution of the Church to Christian witness and service in the local community. The Kirk Session has delegated to its Congregational Committee the temporal affairs of the congregation including administering all funds and property belonging to the congregation. Members of the Kirk Session are ex-officio members of the Congregational Committee.

The Kirk Session consists of the ordained minister and the ruling elders of the congregation. All members are entitled to propose, speak and exercise equal votes at meetings, except that the Moderator, the ministers in active duty in the congregation, has no deliberative but only a casting vote.

Stated meetings of the Kirk session are held at least five in each year or as appropriate.

To be chosen for the office of the eldership in the congregation a person must be a voting member and a regular attendant on its ordinances. The selection of those proposed to be called to the office can be either by the congregation or by the Kirk Session. Members are elected if they obtain two-thirds of those who vote.

Presbytery

Under the Presbyterian Church in Ireland form of governance the corporate oversight of a congregation is the responsibility of a Presbytery which superintends generally the spiritual and temporal affairs of the congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. Garryduff congregation of the Presbyterian Church has been assigned to the Route Presbytery of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The membership of the Presbytery consists mainly of the active ministers of congregations assigned to it by the General Assembly, ministers who have retired from active duty and an elder appointed by the Kirk Session of the congregation.

The General Assembly

The General Assembly is the supreme court of the Church, representing in one body the whole Church and acting as its supreme legislative, administration and judicial authority, in dealing with all matters brought before it. The General Assembly is normally constituted during the first week in June for worship and to conduct its business. At the end of business, it is dissolved. The membership of the General Assembly consists mainly of the active ministers of each congregation, retired ministers and a representative elder appointed by the Kirk Session of each congregation.

DESCRIPTION AND PURPOSE

The charitable purpose of the congregation is the advancement of religion.

Garryduff congregation of the Presbyterian Church is a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. The Presbyterian Church in Ireland, as a Reformed Church within the wider body of Christ is grounded in the Scriptures, and exists to love and honour God through faith in His Son and by the power of His Spirit, and to enable her members to play their part in fulfilling God's mission to our world.

The congregation's mission purposes is by the grace of God, to help people of all ages become fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ. Our vision is, by the grace of God, to be an inclusive, welcoming community of Christ's people of all ages, which:

- is increasingly characterised by love for God, and love and concern for others;
- is committed to the historic Christian gospel as revealed in the Bible;
- is relevant to people of this time and place.

GARRYDUFF CONGREGATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT (cont'd)

The congregation aims to live out its Mission and Vision as a family of God's people by being:

- A Covenant Community: where our relationships are rooted in the promises of God by living faithfully toward him and toward one another
- An Intergenerational Community: where adults intentionally take the lead to engage with, encourage and nurture younger members to maturity in Christ.
- An Outward looking Community: where we want the blessings of God that belong to us in the gospel to become blessings for others beyond the bounds of our community.
- As a congregation of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland, we believe that the Bible is the supreme authority over all we do, and that the Westminster Confession of Faith, along with the Larger and Shorter Catechisms set out what we understand the Bible teaches on key matters of Christian faith and practice.

ACTIVITIES AND OBJECTIVES

The congregation meets for worship every Sunday and visitors are welcome to join. The Sacrament of the Lords Supper is observed on several occasions during the year and all those who have been baptised and who have made a profession of faith in the Lord Jesus Christ are admitted to the Lord's Supper. The congregation holds regular bible study meetings and has a wide range of organisations including:

- Sunday School
- Mothers and Toddlers
- Cuppa and a chat
- Bowling Club
- Thursday Fellowship
- Kingdom Kids
- Senior Youth
- Presbyterian Women
- Cuppa and a chat
- Youth club

ACHIEVEMENTS AND PERFORMANCE

Worship and prayer

The congregation normally meets for worship each Sunday at 12 noon. During the week, the midweek Bible Study provides an opportunity for members to meet together for fellowship, to study the scriptures and for a time of prayer.

There is also a prayer meeting before the Sunday service at 11.30 and a Sunday evening prayer meeting at 7.00pm.

As well as our regular services during the year 1 child was baptised, we had 1 marriage service and gave thanks for faithful service and sought to comfort those who had been bereaved during the year.

At 31 December 2024, there were 182 communicant members and 158 families connected with the congregation. The average week attendance at morning worship is 70.

Pastoral care

Members of the congregation who are unable to attend church due to sickness or age are visited on a regular basis by the minister, elders or by committee members. Session inform the convenor of those who might benefit from a visit due to illness or otherwise.

The congregation supports the United Appeal for Mission which is a central fund of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland. This fund enables congregations to support the wider mission of the denomination and to do mission and outreach on a denominational basis beyond what the congregation could do on its own. The United Appeal Fund provides financial support for mission personnel at home and overseas, assists congregations with the deployment of locally based staff, enables church planting, provides grant support for the upkeep of church premises, assist with the running costs of Union Theological College, the Church's training college for ministry students, and financially supports congregations in the areas of worship, discipleship, global mission, outreach, leadership and pastoral care. One of our members was supported by the congregation when she visited India in support of Children in Poverty.

Presbytery

The congregation was represented at the regular meetings of Presbytery by our minister and a representative elder. This provides an important link between the congregations and the wider structures of the church. We have contributed to the Reconfiguration of Ministry Task Group / Green Paper.

General Assembly

The minister and one of our elders were nominated to attend the meeting of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Ireland held in Assembly Buildings, Belfast, in June.

Property

During the year, there were no major repairs or improvements to the Church property. Work started during 2022 was completed at the Manse as well as ensuring that it is ready for the new manse family when the time arrives. Satisfactory surveys were completed.

Organisations

Sunday School

The children come to church and then after the children's talk they go out to Sunday school. There are 5 teachers involved in teaching the lesson on a rota. After the lesson the children are split into 3 different age groups and using Go teach material they discuss the lesson and complete the workbooks. There are at present 20 children on roll.

Presbyterian Women

It meets on the second Thursday of the month Jan- March and Oct – Dec with an annual outing. It is our prayer that women may know the light of God's presence as we meet together in friendship and love. It is open to all women who wish to attend. Our attendance has remained steady with 30 members at present. The Theme for the year is "Entrusted" with our health and well-being, with caring for others, with our talents etc. The "Entrusted with our health and well-being" was attended by both men and women from our own congregation who came along for a health check as well as invitations being given to and accepted by others from the local community. As a result some younger ladies started to attend PW.

Mother and Toddlers

This group meets every Monday morning from 9.30am – 11.30am during term time. It is open to all parents with preschool children in the congregation and the surrounding community. We provide a safe area for children to play together under the supervision of their parent or guardian.

Kingdom Kids

This group meets in Garryduff hall every Thursday (term-time) from 6.45pm to 7.45pm. Children aged from 4 to 11 years of age come to enjoy fun, Bible stories, quizzes and games. The group is open to all children in the local area. Around 15 attend.

Thursday Club

This club meets once a month in the minor hall from 2.30 pm to 4.00 pm. Various speakers are invited as well as a Quiz afternoon. Everyone comes along to enjoy fellowship over a cup of tea. In June a day trip was organised to Newcastle followed by a meal at Millside Restaurant Cloughmills. This was very enjoyable. Around 20-25 attend each month.

Bowling club

The bowling Club exists to promote friendship and enjoyment through the sport of short mat indoor bowls in our congregation and the wider community. Bowls is a sport for any age and we therefore have no age limit. We meet every Tuesday evening from 8pm to 10.30pm approximately, in the main hall, with normally 16-20 members per night. Several friendly matches are planned throughout the season with other local church bowling clubs. These are played home and away. We also have an annual dinner/prize night in May each year.

Midweek

This group meets on a Wednesday evening every other week in the minor Hall. On alternate weeks they meet in Dunloy who are in a linkage with Garryduff. There is a time of praise, bible study and a short time of prayer. During the vacancy we have been provided with a number of very capable speakers who have all contributed to times of good teaching and fellowship. Linda McAuley from CEF came along to speak about her work with Child Evangelism Fellowship. There are around 20 attending at present.

Senior Youth

The senior youth meet in the Church hall on the first Sunday evening of the month at 8pm for about an hour. The group meets for fellowship together in the form of hot chocolate and buns followed by an Bible study session looking at Bible lessons using various activities. There was a special Christmas themed night looking at the commonly told Nativity story versus the account recorded in the Bible.

Cuppa and Chat

This group meet every Monday morning from 10am until 12 noon for tea/coffee along with toast, pancakes, scones, banana bread, fruit loaf etc and perhaps a tray bake or biscuit. It is attended by anyone who is able to drop in. The craic is good and many different topics can be discussed. Some stay for most or all of the time while others drop in for a short time and then get back to work. Numbers vary but we could have over 20 most days. This has resulted in some starting to attend church services.

Youth Club

The youth club restarted this year with 12 regularly attending the nights held on the 2nd Saturday in the month. They meet together for games, a short epilogue and finish with some refreshments. The year starts with a trip to the lake in Kilrea followed by food in the hall. At Christmas we had a Christmas movie night with the obligatory snacks. The use of instagram has helped to engage the members.

Holiday Bible Club

A Holiday Bible Club was held in the last week of June for children of Primary School age. It concludes with a BBQ attended by parents and friends. This is a means of outreach into the local community.

Volunteers

The Trustees wish to acknowledge their deep appreciation of those who give freely of their time by serving on committees and helping with organisations and other church activities.

PUBLIC BENEFIT STATEMENT

The Presbyterian Church in Ireland meets the public benefit requirement by providing benefit to its members and the general public by making known the Christian Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ through the advancement of religion.

The direct benefits which flow from the purposes of the Church include the gaining of an understanding in Christian beliefs as set out in the Bible and in the Church's subordinate standards (the Westminster Confession of Faith and the Shorter and Larger Catechisms) leading to spiritual and moral development and opportunities for response to Bible teaching. In turn, this framework leads to practical expressions of Christian beliefs and standards in the local community such as through the care of those in need (including the sick, disabled and bereaved).

Generally the above benefits are delivered locally by congregations and their members, or are facilitated through presbyteries or are organised and delivered centrally. Local delivery is facilitated by central resources in almost all cases. Public access is made known through the use of noticeboards, printed material, press advertisement, websites, and social media or in other ways.

The benefits are demonstrated through regular evaluation of the services and informal and ad-hoc feedback from members, their families, and members of the public.

GARRYDUFF CONGREGATION OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH IN IRELAND
TRUSTEES ANNUAL REPORT (cont'd)

The purpose does not lead to harm. The only private benefit flowing from our purpose is related to Ministers, Missionaries, Deaconesses, Irish Mission workers and Lay Agents who receive benefits as a result of their holding office or employment. However, this is incidental and necessary in order to further our charitable purpose. There are no other private benefits. The beneficiaries of this purpose are members, their families, other individuals that the Presbyterian Church in Ireland is in direct and indirect contact with, the community in which pastoral services are provided and other communities throughout Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, and worldwide which benefit from our engagement with and support for both Christian and other secular organisations, charities and individual members of the public.

The Kirk Session has had regard to the Charity Commissions Public benefit requirement statutory guidance.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

The congregation's main source of income is members' contributions through the Weekly Freewill Offering. There were 107 contributors during the year [2023: 109] donating a total of £53,973 (2023: £50,415).

Total Income of the congregation during the year was £105,497, compared to £105,459 in the previous year. The level of income for 2024 remained at a similar level to 2023 in our goal to be given leave to call by Church house for a minister.

Total expenditure decreased from £95,139 to £69,062 excluding depreciation. This decrease is due to the continued vacancy where we have not had to pay for a minister and the associated costs of national insurance and pension contributions.

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

The Trustees are responsible for preparing the annual report and the financial statements of the congregation in accordance with applicable law and generally accepted accounting practice.

As the congregations total income does not exceed £250,000, the Trustees have elected under Section 64(3) of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008 to prepare a receipts and payment account and a statement of assets and liabilities.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping adequate accounting records that are sufficient to show and explain the congregation's transactions and disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time its financial position. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the congregation and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Kirk Session on 28th Sept. 2025 and signed on its behalf by

Mr Stanley Lee MBE
