

GOSPEL BUS MINISTRY
INDEPENDENT AUDITORS REPORT
TO THE TRUSTEES OF GOSPEL BUS MINISTRY

Opinion

I have audited the financial statements of Gospel Bus Ministry for the year ending 31 December 2019

In my opinion the financial statements give a true and fair view of the state of the ministry's affairs as at 31 December 2019 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, for the year then ended.

Basis for opinion

I conducted the audit as an Independent auditor from the Gospel Bus Ministry in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the accounts in the UK, I believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for my opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

In connection with my audit of the financial statements, my responsibilities are to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If based on the work I have performed, I conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, I am required to report this fact.

In conclusion, a new accounting system has been put into place from January 2020 to ensure that all payments made by the charity are fully documented and appropriate receipts provided as evidence of expenditure. This will make preparation and submission of annual accounts to the Charities commission much easier in the future.

Use of this report

This report is made solely to the charity's trustees, as a body, in accordance with part 4 of the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 2015. My audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charity's trustees those matters I am required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, I do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charity and the charity's trustees as a body, for my audit work, for this report, or for the opinions I have formed.
