There were 6 girl guides during this year. They took part in a community flower festival which required many craft skills to make papier mache mountains, whipping and lashing to make stars paper trees and various animals. They also took part in the county outdoor challenge, cooked on hike fires and had a mud walk. At Christmas they went to Rushmere shopping centre to do their Christmas shopping. They had a traditional Halloween games night. The badges they did were team work and flights of fancy.
