Structure, governance and management

The Granaghan Outreach Charitable Trust was established in 2007 and was set up by way of a Trust Deed dated 5th March 2007. The charitable trust constituted by this deed (the charity) and its property (the Trust Fund) shall be administered and managed by the trustees under the name of Granaghan Outreach Charitable Trust or by such other name as the trustees from time to time decide. There is no remuneration of any nature made to the Trustees.

Board of Trustees

The Trust is managed by a Board of Trustees which meets on a regular basis and is chaired by Miss. Maeve Quinn.

The appointment of new Trustees is made by a resolution to the existing Trustees passed at a special meeting.

Administration

The administration of the Trust is undertaken by the Treasurer, Paul Ward. Important decisions are carried out only with the approval of the Board of Trustees.

Objectives and activities

The objects of the trust are exclusively charitable being the promotion and provision of educational, social, vocational, cultural and recreational facilities and relief of poverty for the communities at home and abroad where these objects provide relief and are needed.

Achievement and performance

During the year the Charity continued to fund trusted missionaries with their work.

Financial review

During the year Granaghan Outreach has continued to raise funds through various collections and donations. The Charity made a surplus of £20,065. This is shown in the Statement of Receipts and Payments Account on page 5.

The trustees' annual report was approved on 7th January 2026 and signed on behalf of the board of trustees by:
