MISSION, OBJECTIVES, AND STRATEGY

Objectives

As per our Constitution, we aim to advance education, preserve and safeguard health, relieve poverty and social isolation, increase heritage and cultural awareness, and, in particular, provide in Granaghan and the surrounding district in Co Derry ("the area of benefit") activities in the interests of social welfare for the education, recreation, and leisure-time occupation of people, (without distinction of gender, ethnic identity, nationality, religion, political or other opinion) who, because of social or economic circumstances need such activities.

Granaghan & District Women's Group is a cross-community group which over the past 31 years, has been very successful in securing funding from a wide variety of Funders to run an impressive array of activities for men, women and children. For example- Yoga, Pilates, Demo Cookery, Digital training, Self-Care, Mindfulness, Karate for kids, Self-Defence, Drama, Scriptwriting, Relaxation & Meditation, Jumping Clay, First Aid, Mental Health First Aid, Crocheting and crafts etc.

For 23 consecutive years we also facilitated a weekly class called The Open Doors Club for people with complex or additional needs. In recent years, Granaghan & District Women's Group received funding from the following sources: Brockaghboy Wind Farm, The N I Housing Executive, Cookstown and Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), Mid Ulster District Council, National Lottery

Community Fund, Awards for All, Solace Women's Aid LONDON, The Honourable The Irish Society and The Rural Micro Capital Grant Scheme, The Public Health Agency etc. These grants funded numerous, diverse projects and will continue to bring and keep people together, continue to improve community relations and community spirit, help people avail of opportunities, services and premises, and reduce loneliness and isolation.

Achievements and Performance

Granaghan & District Women's Group organises courses and classes in health and well-being and most significantly, these courses vary annually, in response to need. We also are involved in linking with other community organisations, attending appropriate conferences such as N I Rural Women's Day in Stormont Parliament Buildings, Belfast, twinning up with The Men's Shed Upperlands, N I Housing Executive, The Loup's Women's Group, Northern Ireland Rural Women's Network, (NIRWN), Cookstown Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), the Community Foundation for Northern Ireland, and Mid Ulster District Council. The group, in conjunction with Upperlands Community Development Group, has run very successful cross-community/cross-border bus trips to places of interest such as the Ulster Museum, Crumlin Road Jail, Lissadell House Sligo, the GPO in Dublin and The Boyne Valley Centre.

We also organise environmental activities such as litter picks and our very popular "Sow and Grow in the Swa" now rebranded as "The Happy Gardeners!" where we plant organic vegetables in our evolving wee community garden. In these sessions, we also build our own wooden veggie beds under the tutelage of Jenny McGetrick from The Conservation Volunteers. "The Happy Gardeners!" reflects the group's positivity!

Over the past 5 years, since Covid-19 struck in March 2020, our women's group has successfully navigated its way through the repercussions of Covid, initially suspending all activities, as demanded by law, then quickly up-skilling our committee (and members) in Zoom, Facebook Live and YouTube. Subsequently, we provided our full tranche of pre-Covid activities online, (completely free to beneficiaries) from September 2020 until the Summer of 2021 and then since September 2021 resuming face-to-face activities in the village Resource Centre and also continuing to provide activities online such as Self-Care Hour and we will continue this hybrid approach. We facilitate approximately 180+ discrete activities yearly, something of which we are very proud.

Our work is guided and informed by a series of bespoke policies which we have meticulously developed and which we review and update at regular intervals. We are proud of our Facebook Page and Instagram Account. Both these platforms capture the impact our group has and the impressive tranche of activities which we facilitate.

Granaghan & District Women's Group is currently in its 32nd year, which confirms that we are a very successful community group as our classes and activities are without exception oversubscribed with waiting lists.

Finally, at our 30th birthday celebration, the newly appointed deputy chair of Mid- ulster Council, Wesley Browne said: "Making 30 years is an incredible achievement and testament to the amazing work the group does, in, with and for the local community! You don't experience longevity like this without becoming an invaluable resource in the community and that is certainly the case for the esteemed Granaghan and District Women's group...This group is the embodiment of the good that the Council grants and funding programmes can contribute to, and the positive outputs they can have in the local community...The work the group has carried out over the last three decades cannot be underestimated, working with many funders to deliver successful outcomes, all for the betterment of the community..." The Deputy Chair also commented on the "years of selfless dedication and commitment which have led the group to become the successful organisation it is today" and then presented the Chair of the women's group Deirdre Bradley with a beautiful, bespoke, Galway crystal bowl to commemorate the occasion.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Total receipts for the year have increased from £20,696 in the year ended 31 March 2024 to £27,942 for the year ending 31 March 2025. Payments have also increased from £17,404 in the year ended 31 March 2024 to £27,626 for the year ending 31 March 2025. The charity had a bank and cash balance of £19,820.

Reserves Policy

The reserves are held for the benefit of Granaghan & District Women's Group. The policy is reviewed on an annual basis by the Trustees.

Results

At the end of the year, the charity has assets of £19,820 (2024 - £19,504) and liabilities of £0.00 (2024 - £0.00). The net assets of the charity have increased by £316.

The charity engages proactively with legislation, standards, and codes that are developed for the sector.

Direct Funding

In addition to the income and expenditure shown in the receipts and payments accounts, the charity also benefited from support provided directly by funders. During the year, CWSAN contributed £800 towards tutor costs by paying some tutors directly. As these funds were not received into, or paid out from, the charity's bank account, they are not included in the financial statements. The trustees nevertheless wish to acknowledge this support as it contributed directly to the charity's activities.

Public Benefit

In shaping our objectives for the year and planning our activities, the trustees have considered the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's public benefit guidance.

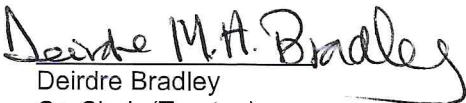

The chief benefits of Granaghan & District Women's Group are that people, (not just women) in a deprived rural area have a neutral venue where they can meet and socialise. A further benefit is that people can access all sorts of classes and courses of both educational and recreational content.

Benefits are demonstrated by the number of people attending each activity. Beneficiaries are routinely asked to complete an evaluation of the activities at the end of the courses. The management committee also measures the success and the benefits of their activities through face-to-face interviews with participants and tutors.

The beneficiaries are a large number of local families and the women's group provides equality of opportunity to all Section 75 persons to meet, connect and socialise in a secure cross-community venue thus ensuring they are not socially isolated but that they have the chance to become more fulfilled both as individuals and as members of the Granaghan community.

There is no private benefit except for fees paid to tutors which are necessary for the successful work of the group.

We have renamed it this year and it is now called The Happy Gardeners which reflects the group's positivity!

Over the past 4 years, since Covid-19 struck in March 2020, our women's group has successfully navigated its way through the repercussions of Covid, initially suspending all activities, as demanded by law, then quickly up-skilling our committee (and members) in Zoom, Facebook Live and YouTube. Subsequently, we provided our full tranche of pre-Covid activities online, (completely free to beneficiaries) from September 2020 until the Summer of 2021 and then since September 2021 resuming face-to-face activities in the village Resource Centre and also continuing to provide activities online such as Self-Care Hour and we will continue this hybrid approach as Covid numbers are, unfortunately on the rise again. We facilitate approximately 150 + discrete activities yearly, something of which we are very proud.

Our work is guided and informed by a series of bespoke policies which we have meticulously developed and which we review and update at regular intervals. We are proud of our Facebook Page and Instagram Account. Both these platforms capture the impact our group has and the impressive tranche of activities which we facilitate.

Granaghan & District Women's Group is currently in its 31st year, which confirms that we are a very successful community group as our classes and activities are generally oversubscribed with waiting lists.

Finally, at our 30th birthday celebration on June 11th this year, the newly appointed deputy chair of Mid- Ulster Council, Wesley Browne said: "Making 30 years is an incredible achievement and testament to the amazing work the group does, in, with and for the local community! You don't experience longevity like this without becoming an invaluable resource in the community and that is certainly the case for the esteemed Granaghan and District Women's group...This group is the embodiment of the good that the Council grants and funding programmes can contribute to, and the positive outputs they can have in the local community...The work the group has carried out over the last three decades cannot be underestimated, working with many funders to deliver successful outcomes, all for the betterment of the community..." The Deputy Chair also commented on the "years of selfless dedication and commitment which have led the group to become the successful organisation it is today" and then presented the Chair of the women's group Deirdre Bradley with a beautiful, bespoke, Galway crystal bowl to commemorate the occasion.

Public Benefit

In shaping our objectives for the year and planning our activities, the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance "Public benefit: running a charity (PB2)".

The chief benefits of Granaghan & District Women's Group are that people, (not just women) in a deprived rural area have a neutral venue where they can meet and socialise. A further benefit is that people can access all sorts of classes and courses of both educational and recreational content.

Benefits are demonstrated by the number of people attending each activity. Beneficiaries are routinely asked to complete an evaluation of the activities at the end of the courses. The management committee also measures the success and the benefits of their activities through face-to-face interviews with participants and tutors.

The beneficiaries are a large number of local families and the women's group provides equality of opportunity to all Section 75 persons to meet, connect and socialise in a secure cross-community venue thus ensuring they are not socially isolated but that they have the chance to become more fulfilled both as individuals and as members of the Granaghan community.

There is no private benefit except for fees paid to tutors which are necessary for the successful work of the group.

MISSION, OBJECTIVES, AND STRATEGY

Objectives

As per our Constitution, we aim to advance education, preserve and safeguard health, relieve poverty and social isolation, increase heritage and cultural awareness, and, in particular, provide in Granaghan and the surrounding district in Co Derry ("the area of benefit") activities in the interests of social welfare for the education, recreation, and leisure-time occupation of people, (without distinction of gender, ethnic identity, nationality, religion, political or other opinion) who, because of social or economic circumstances need such activities.

Granaghan & District Women's Group is a cross-community group which over the past 30 years, has been successful in securing funding from a wide variety of Funders to run an impressive array of activities for men, women and children. For example- Yoga, Pilates, Demo Cookery, Digital training, Self-Care, Mindfulness, Karate for kids, Self-Defence, Drama, Script writing, Relaxation & Meditation, Jumping Clay, First Aid, Mental Health First Aid, Crocheting and crafts etc.

For 23 consecutive years we also facilitated a weekly class called The Open Doors Club for people with complex or additional needs. In recent years, Granaghan & District Women's Group received funding from the following sources: Brockaghboy Windfarm, The NI Housing Executive, Cookstown and Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), Mid Ulster District Council, National Lottery Community Fund, Awards for All, Solace Women's Aid LONDON, The Honourable The Irish Society and The Rural Micro Capital Grant Scheme, etc. These grants funded numerous, diverse projects and will continue to bring and keep people together, continue to improve community relations and community spirit, help people avail of opportunities, services and premises, and reduce loneliness and isolation.

Achievements and Performance

Granaghan & District Women's Group organises courses and classes in health and well-being and most significantly, these courses vary annually, in response to need. We also are involved in linking with other community organisations, attending appropriate conferences such as NI Rural Women's Day in Stormont Parliament Buildings Belfast, twinning up with The Men's Shed Upperlands in May 2021, NI Housing Executive, The Loup's Women's Group, Northern Ireland Rural Women's Network, (NIRWN), Cookstown Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), the Community Foundation for Northern Ireland, and Mid Ulster District Council. The group, in conjunction with Upperlands Community Development Group, has run very successful cross-community/cross-border bus trips to places of interest such as the Ulster Museum, Crumlin Road Jail, Lisadell House Sligo, the GPO in Dublin and The Boyne Valley Centre.

We also organise environmental activities such as litter picks and our very popular "Sow and Grow in the Swa" in our evolving wee community garden. In these sessions, we grow vegetables and build our own wooden veggie beds under the tutelage of Jenny McGetrick from The Conservation Volunteers. We have renamed it this year and it is now called The Happy Gardeners which reflects the group's positivity!

Over the past 4 years, since Covid-19 struck in March 2020, our women's group has successfully navigated its way through the repercussions of Covid, initially suspending all activities, as demanded by law, then quickly up-skilling our committee (and members) in Zoom, Facebook Live and YouTube. ## MISSION, OBJECTIVES, AND STRATEGY

Objectives

As per our Constitution, we aim to relieve poverty, advance education, preserve and safeguard health and, in particular, to provide in Granaghan and the surrounding district in Co Derry ("the area of benefit") activities in the Interests of social welfare for the education, recreation, and leisure-time occupation of people (not exclusively women) who, because of social or economic circumstances need such activities.

Granaghan & District Women's Group, over the past 29 years, has been successful in securing funding from a wide variety of Funders to run an impressive array of activities for men, women and children. For example- Yoga, Pilates, Demo Cookery, Digital training, Self-Care, Mindfulness, Karate for kids, Self-defence, Drama, Script writing, Relaxation & Meditation, Jumping Clay, Crocheting and crafts etc. For 23 years we also facilitated a weekly class called The Open Doors Club for people with complex or additional needs. In recent years, Granaghan & District Women's Group received funding from the following sources: Brockaghboy Windfarm, The NI Housing Executive, Cookstown and Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), Mid Ulster District Council, National Lottery Community Fund, Awards for All, Solace Women's Aid LONDON, The Honourable The Irish Society and The Rural Micro Capital Grant Scheme, etc. These grants funded numerous diverse projects and will continue to bring and keep people together, continue to improve community relations and community spirit, help people avail of opportunities, services and premises, and reduce loneliness and isolation.

Achievements and Performance

Granaghan & District Women's Group organises courses and classes in health and well-being and most significantly, these courses change annually, in response to need. We also are involved in linking with other community organisations, attending appropriate conferences such as N I Rural Women's Day in Stormont Parliament Buildings Belfast, Twinning up with The Men's Shed Upperlands in May 2021, N I Housing Executive, The Loup's Women's Group, Northern Ireland Rural Women's Network, (NIRWN), Cookstown Western Shores Area Network (CWSAN), the Community Foundation for Northern Ireland, and Mid Ulster District Council. The group, in conjunction with Upperlands Community Development Group, has run very successful cross-community/cross-border bus trips to places of interest such as the Ulster Museum, Crumlin Road Jail, Lisadell House Sligo, the GPO in Dublin and The Boyne Valley Centre.

We also organise environmental activities such as litter picks and our very popular "Sow and Grow in the Swa" in our evolving wee community garden. In these sessions, we grow vegetables and build our own wooden veggie beds under the tutelage of Jenny McGetrick from The Conservation Volunteers.

Over the past 3 years, since Covid-19 struck in March 2020, our women's group has successfully navigated its way through the repercussions of Covid, initially suspending all activities, as demanded by law, then quickly up-skilling our committee (and members) in Zoom, Facebook Live and Youtube. Subsequently, we provided our full tranche of pre-Covid activities online, (completely free to beneficiaries) from September 2020 until the Summer of 2021 and then since September 2021 resuming face-to-face activities in the village Resource Centre and also continuing to provide activities online such as Self-Care Hour and we will continue this hybrid approach as Covid numbers are on the rise again.

Our work is guided and informed by a series of bespoke policies which we have meticulously developed and which we review and update at regular intervals.

Granaghan & District Women's Group is currently in its 29th year, which confirms that we are a very successful community group as our classes and activities are generally oversubscribed with waiting lists.

We are proud of our Facebook Page and Instagram Account. Both these platforms capture the impact our group has and the impressive tranche of activities which we facilitate.

The charity engages proactively with legislation, standards, and codes that are developed for the sector. Granaghan & District Women's Group subscribes to and is compliant with the following:

Public Benefit

In shaping our objectives for the year and planning our activities, the trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance "Public benefit: running a charity (PB2)".

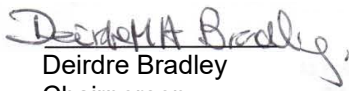

The chief benefits of Granaghan & District Women's Group are that people, (not just women) in a deprived rural area have a neutral venue where they can meet and socialise. A further benefit is that people can access all sorts of classes and courses of both educational and recreational content.

Benefits are demonstrated by the number of people attending each activity. Beneficiaries are routinely asked to complete an evaluation of the activities at the end of the courses. The management committee also measures the success and the benefits of their activities through face-to-face interviews with participants and tutors.

The beneficiaries are a large number of local families and the women's group provides equality of opportunity to all Section 75 persons to meet, connect and socialise in a secure cross-community venue thus ensuring they are not socially isolated but that they have the chance to become more fulfilled both as individuals and as members of the Granaghan community.

There is no private benefit except for fees paid to tutors which are necessary for the successful work of the group.
