

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees on the Unaudited Financial Statements of Cullyhanna Community Group

I report on the accounts of Cullyhanna Community Group for the year ended 30 November 2024 set out on pages 2 to 11.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Independent Examiner

The charity's trustees (who are also the directors of the company for purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the accounts. Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to state, on the basis of my examination, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanation from you as trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- (i) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep proper accounting records in accordance with section 386 of Companies Act 2006; and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records, comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Statement of Recommended Practice (FRS 102)have not been met; or
- (ii) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
