A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

1st Comber Rangers had nine girls, aged 14-18 registered this financial year. The unit meets on Tuesday evenings from 7.30 – 9.00pm. They met on 22 occasions and took part in a range of activities, based around the Girlguiding programme, such as: baking, games, crafts, campfires, skills for their future including first aid training, joint events with other units to encourage friendship and community, and teambuilding trips. Three of the Rangers joined with the Guides for their annual summer camp. The programme was planned jointly by the girls and the leaders, and allowed them to grow and develop as young women.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no personal gain or private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance
