A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

Average attendance of 14 girls per night for 30 nights throughout the year.

Girls achieved many different skills whilst having fun and gained badges throughout the year. They had international themed evenings and participated in the Social Action Project providing food donations to homeless charity. The girls also attended a County Fun Day at an Open Fun Farm and collected money for their sponsored walk which also benefits Girlguiding Ulster.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

Charity Trustees are legally obliged to have regard to this guidance and we confirm that all Trustees are aware of this.
