OUR IMPACT 2024/2025

At Home-Start, we believe every child needs a happy and secure childhood. We believe parents have the key role in ensuring children have the best start in life.

The first five years of a child's life are vital for development. We focus on supporting parents during this time to have the skills, confidence and strength to nurture their children.

We tackle the difficulties families encounter rather than waiting to patch up the consequences.

TRUSTEES REPORT 2024-2025

STRATEGIC REPORT

North Belfast has significant pockets of social and economic deprivation that has been exacerbated by the legacy of 30 years of conflict. The area was disproportionately affected with a large number of related deaths. Statistics indicate that there are higher levels of poor mental health and a greater dependency on prescription drugs in the area which research has been linked to this difficult history. Transgenerational trauma is also now regarded as an issue as the anxieties of those who lived through the Troubles now impact on their children. Home-Start support is available to any family, irrespective of socio-economic status or religion.

Achievements and performance

Home-Start North Belfast has a committed staff and volunteer team, strong partnerships and generous donors. From 1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025 Home-Start North Belfast supported 30 families in the area by home-visiting. The scheme delivers the home-visiting core service of parent volunteers supporting families under stress, in their own homes, where there is at least one child under five. It also provided a Family Group to 36 families which meets weekly during term-time. This group allows parents and children to come together to learn to play and develop as a family. The group is structured and all activities are planned in advance and in consultation with the families, volunteers and staff. Activities practice school readiness and encourage parents to continue this at home. We also provided a food-bank service to a large number of our families as well as gas, electric, clothes and bedding when funding allows.

Financial review

In a difficult economic climate, we have managed to sustain the organisation financially this year. The trustees thank the donors who supported projects during the period, including Belfast Health and Social Care Trust Awards for All and Halifax. The overall income for the year was. Lawrence will provide on the day and I will correct. The Trustees are mindful that the organisation needs to secure grant funding for periods longer than one year to provide stability and enable better planning. We are also mindful that unrestricted funding needs to be in accordance with our Reserves Policy which strives to have at least three months operating costs in the reserve account.

Plans for future periods

- Maximising opportunities to secure funding remains a priority. In particular, we will endeavour to diversify our funders and secure funding for periods longer than one year.
- We will seek to strengthen existing, and develop new, partnerships with various stakeholders, including for family referrals and volunteer recruitment.
- We will work to maximise synergies, particularly for larger funding applications.
- Throughout the next year, we will seek to recruit new trustees to diversify skills and experience on the Management Committee.

Structure, governance and management

The organisation has 5 Trustees on the Management Committee who bring a range of skills and experience to ensure oversight and guide the strategy of the organisation. The Management Committee meet 7 times a year at 6 week intervals, except during the summer, to review income and expenditure, discuss key activities and future plans. There are 3 staff in the scheme. Every week the Co-ordinator works 30 hours, 2 Project Workers at 15 hours and 16 Hour. The organisation works closely with Home-Start UK and completes its quality Assurance to ensure standards are maintained.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Home-Start North Belfast

I report on the accounts of the company for the year ended 31st March 2025 which are set out on pages 1 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity trustees (and also the directors of the company for the purposes of company law) you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006. Having satisfied myself that the charity is not subject to audit under company law, and is eligible for independent examination, it is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

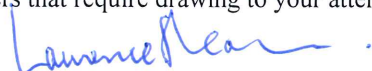

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act. The examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 386 of the Companies Act 2006
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of section 396 of the Companies Act 2006 and with the methods and principles of the Charities Statement of Recommended Practice applicable to charities preparing their accounts in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard applicable in the UK and Republic of Ireland
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
