A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

On average there were 11 girls present each night with 13 on the roll, numbers are increasing on previous year .

Activities included outdoor challenges, craft, games and developing each girls confidence. We also held a fundraising event by providing teas at a local vintage rally. We also contributed to the community at Christmas by Carol singing to the elderly.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

In setting our objectives and planning our activities for the year the Trustees have given careful consideration to the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland's guidance on public benefit to ensure that the activities have helped to achieve the charity's purpose and provide a benefit to the beneficiaries.
