A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

The unit hasn't officially opened; however, the following has taken place this year:

-The older girls in the Guide Age Group have been involved in monthly meetings. During these meetings we have been carrying out Ranger appropriate activities so that by the time they reach the age of 14, we can officially open the unit.

-Some examples of activities that have taken place this year have been:

- 1. Girls were tasked with making a full Sunday Dinner, using their own ingredients.
- 2. The girls got involved in a Pamper Evening, where they used personal products, watched a movie and made Hot Chocolate.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of Waringstown Rangers

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2024

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

1st April 2022- 31st March 2023

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

The unit was unable to operate during this year due to not having any premises.

Efforts are being made to find a new meeting venue, with the hope of opening in 2024/2025.

As leader, I continued to ensure that my Girlguiding training was kept up to date by attending 'A Safe Space' training.

There was no harm flowing from the charities purposes and there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

As trustee of Waringstown Rangers, I have had regard to the Commissions public Benefit Requirement Statutory Guidance.

A review of the Charity's financial position at the end of the year

As the unit did not operate in 2022/2023, there was no income or expenditure for Waringstown Rangers.

At the year end, the balance in the bank was £174.40.

Details of any fund held by the Charity that was materially in deficit at the end of the year and steps taken by the Charity Trustees to eliminate the deficit
