Year ended 31 December 2023

A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

During the year to December 2023 there were 16 girls in the Unit and they took part in a variety of activities including crafts, games and food tasting. The girls worked towards a number of challenge badges including a Teddy Bear Badge, Coronation Badge and Space Badge.

We had 2 outings – one to a local urban farm and another to Lorne estate for a Rainbow fun day.

The girls also completed animal crafts to decorate a tree at a Christmas Tree Festival – our theme was Noah's Ark.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of 1st Eden Rainbows

I report on the accounts of the charity for the 12 month period ended 31 December 2023.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act;
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act; and
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act;
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records;
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act; and
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
