

At 1st Killylea Guides, parents pay dues to cover the girls insurance. We also received two donations one from the church and one from the EA, both of which was used for activities. Money was payed out to pay the deposit for the weekend away to Gosford, equipment and on food and outings.