A summary of the Charity's main activities to further its purposes for the public benefit and the main achievements in the year

We had 22-24 girls in our unit. The girls took part in a variety of activities from the Girl Guiding programme, focusing on the topics of Know Myself, Express Myself and Have Adventures. The girls also experienced a variety of crafts, cooking, a special 'No Sleep, Sleep Over' where they experience all the fun of a residential experience without having to spend the night away from home. The girls also experienced a variety of visitors to the unit including some relaxation and mindfulness sessions, rhythmic drumming, circus skills and animal encounters.

There was no harm flowing from the Charities purposes and that there was no private benefit.

A statement that the Trustees have had regard to the Commission's Public Benefit requirement statutory guidance

All Trustees are aware of this guidance and have adhered to it.
