Trustees Report for Financial Year 2023-2024

The Trustees, Brendan Durkan, Tom Moore, Patrick Quinn and Anne Smyth are pleased to report that the Organisation continues to provide regular Talks of an historic nature in the locality.

In conjunction with the Talk on 21st November 2023 the Society's Annual General Meeting was held. The Chairperson declared all Officer and Trustee positions vacant and invited Arthur Shields to take the Chair for the election of an incoming Committee and Trustees.

The Acting Chairperson invited nominations from the floor. With no nominations forthcoming Arthur Shields asked the outgoing Officers and Trustees if they were willing to serve for a further year. In agreeing, all five stated that they would expect other members to be willing to be nominated to positions at the next AGM. On this understanding the Acting Chairperson declared all Officers and Trustees elected.

The Trustees are content that the Organisation is in good shape, adhering to the Constitution and continuing to maintain its obligations to public safety.

The Trustees agreed to retain ASM as Accounts Examiner and that the Society's address would continue to be 46 Chestnut Grove, Newry, Co. Down BT34 1JT.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of

'The Old Newry Society'

We report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 March 2024, which are set out on pages 3 to 5.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008. It is our responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- follow the procedures laid down in the general Directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

We have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and our examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

Our examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

Our role is to state whether any material matters have come to our attention giving us cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

We have completed our examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the Directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, we have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Trustees Report for Financial Year 2022-2023

The Trustees, Brendan Durkan, Tom Moore, Patrick Quinn and Anne Smyth, are happy to report that, following the earlier constraints occasioned by Covid-19, the Organisation is now able to operate in a normal fashion and continue to provide regular Talks of an historic nature.

In conjunction with the first Talk of the 2022-2023 year, held on the 25th October 2022 the Society's Annual General Meeting was held. The Chairperson declared all Officer and Trustee positions vacant, invited Eamon Fitzpatrick to take the Chair for the election of an incoming Committee and Trustees.

Eamon Fitzpatrick called for nominations from the floor. The following proposal was made by Martin Toal; "Given that the outgoing Officers and Trustees have managed to hold the organisation together during the difficulties of Covid-19 I propose that the outgoing Officers and Trustees be returned". This was immediately seconded by Arthur Shields.

The acting Chairperson asked if there were any further nominations. With no further nominations the acting Chairperson declared all positions now filled.

The Trustees are content that the Organisation is in good shape, adhering to the Constitution and continuing to maintain its obligations to public safety.

The Trustees agreed to retain ASM as Accounts Examiner and that the Society's address would continue to be

46 Chestnut Grove, Newry, Co. Down BT34 1JT.
