Independent Examiner's Report To The Members Of Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 August 2022.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

The Trustees present the annual report and accounts for the Ted Clarke Memorial Trust for the year ended 31 August 2022.

This year has returned to normal activities following a disruptive year due to COVID.

Portadown FC youth section with over 300 young players continued to flourish, offering coaching and match play weekly.

Portadown FC female youth worked closely with the male section to adhere to all the guidelines set out by the government.

The Trust was successful in being awarded grants throughout the year. The first was from the Probation Board of Northern Ireland which allowed Shamrock Park to continue to operate as a venue for the offenders to complete their community service. This was interrupted for several months with the shut down.

These grants allowed volunteers within the organisation to identify people in the local community who were struggling both emotionally and financially due to isolation and supply them with community packs which consisted of food and household items.

It is hoped that normal business of the Trust will be able to continue.

Approved by the Trustees on 30 May 2023

The Trustees present the annual report and accounts for the Ted Clarke Memorial Trust for the year ended 31 August 2021.

In January the Trustees were saddened by the death of their esteemed Chairman, Mr Ronnie Stinson.

This year has been very disruptive with the onset of the Coronavirus Virus and the eventual shut down in March with Covid 19.

Portadown FC youth section with over 300 young players continued to flourish, offering coaching and match play weekly up until March. During the rest of the year they adhered to the government guidelines and unfortunately all training and matchplay was suspended. During this period, to help the children and their parents cope with isolation, the coaches ran weekly sessions via Zoom which included quizzes and awareness courses.

Portadown FC female youth worked closely with the male section to adhere to all the guidelines set out by the government.

The Trust was successful in being awarded grants throughout the year. The first was from the Probation Board of Northern Ireland which allowed Shamrock Park to continue to operate as a venue for the offenders to complete their community service. This was interrupted for several months with the shut down.

Two further grants were awarded:-

1. ABC Council grant
2. Co-Operation Ireland grant

These grants allowed volunteers within the organisation to identify people in the local community who were struggling both emotionally and financially due to isolation and supply them with community packs which consisted of food and household items.

It is hoped that normal business of the Trust will be able to resume during September.

Independent Examiner's Report To The Members Of Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 August 2021.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

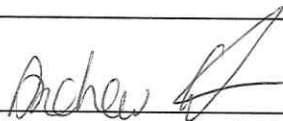

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

The Trustees present the annual report and accounts for the Ted Clarke Memorial Trust for the year ended 31 August 2021.

In January the Trustees were saddened by the death of their esteemed Chairman, Mr Ronnie Stinson.

This year has been very disruptive with the onset of the Coronavirus Virus and the eventual shut down in March with Covid 19.

Portadown FC youth section with over 300 young players continued to flourish, offering coaching and match play weekly up until March. During the rest of the year they adhered to the government guidelines and unfortunately all training and matchplay was suspended. During this period, to help the children and their parents cope with isolation, the coaches ran weekly sessions via Zoom which included quizzes and awareness courses.

Portadown FC female youth worked closely with the male section to adhere to all the guidelines set out by the government.

The Trust was successful in being awarded grants throughout the year. The first was from the Probation Board of Northern Ireland which allowed Shamrock Park to continue to operate as a venue for the offenders to complete their community service. This was interrupted for several months with the shut down.

Two further grants were awarded:-

1. ABC Council grant
2. Co-Operation Ireland grant

These grants allowed volunteers within the organisation to identify people in the local community who were struggling both emotionally and financially due to isolation and supply them with community packs which consisted of food and household items.

It is hoped that normal business of the Trust will be able to resume during September.

Approved by the Trustees on 24 May 2022

Independent Examiner's Report To The Members Of Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 August 2021.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

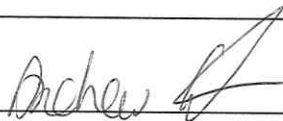

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.

Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

The Trustees present the annual report and accounts for the Ted Clarke Memorial Trust for the year ended 31 August 2020.

This year has been very disruptive with the onset of the Coronavirus Virus and the eventual shut down in March with Covid 19.

Portadown FC youth section with over 300 young players continued to flourish, offering coaching and match play weekly up until March. During the rest of the year they adhered to the government guidelines and unfortunately all training and matchplay was suspended. During this period, to help the children and their parents cope with isolation, the coaches ran weekly sessions via Zoom which included quizzes and awareness courses.

Portadown FC female youth worked closely with the male section to adhere to all the guidelines set out by the government.

The Trust was successful in being awarded grants throughout the year. The first was from the Probation Board of Northern Ireland which allowed Shamrock Park to continue to operate as a venue for the offenders to complete their community service. This was interrupted for several months with the shut down.

Two further grants were awarded:-

1. The Community Foundation/ Coronavirus Community Fund
2. ABC Council Covid-19 Community Support Grant

These grants allowed volunteers within the organisation to identify people in the local community who were struggling both emotionally and financially due to isolation and supply them with community packs which consisted of food and household items.

It is hoped that normal business of the Trust will be able to resume during September.

Approved by the Trustees on 26 August 2021.

Independent Examiner's Report To The Members Of Ted Clarke Memorial Trust

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31 August 2020.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner:

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act,
- to follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report:

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records.
3. That the accounts do not comply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
