REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES FOR THE YEAR ENDING 29 JUNE 2023

The trustees present this report for the year ending June 2023. During this year there was a strong demand for our services, which reflects the growing hardship that the public are suffering.

SUCSESSES AND FAILURES

There is a team of volunteers who go out every week with hot food, warm clothing, sleeping bags, two-man tents and emergency pods.

We have achieved what we set out to do when we opened the charity. The community and the friends of the charity are fully committed to the success of Manna 4 Many. The principal funding of the sources mainly comes from the sales from the charity shop. We would also receive cheques and monetary donations. This enables us to pay our shop rent, electric bill, and water supplies.

One of the successes of the charity has been our team of volunteers. We have some that go above and beyond what they are required to do, and they make the shop a pleasant place to work.

There are no failures to present.

PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

There is a need now more than ever for a charity like Manna 4 Many. For the time being we will continue to do what we can as the need arises. With the unknown situation of unemployment and rise of household bills. The public are turning more to charity shops.

Charity No: 107438

KEY MANAGEMENT

The trustees consider as individual members of Manna 4 Many charity, we are at one with directing and controlling the charity on a day-to-day basis. Trustees and volunteers give of their time freely. No trustee or volunteer was paid during the accounting year.

Annual return

Independent examiner's report to the charity trustees of Manna 4 Many

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ending 29th June 2023.

Respective responsibilities of charity trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the Charities Act (Northern Ireland) 2008.

It is my responsibility to:

- Examine the accounts under section 65 of the Charities Act
- Follow the procedures laid down in the general directions given by the Commission under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act
- State whether particular matters have come to my attention

Basis of independent examiner's report

I have examined your charity accounts as required under section 65 of the Charities Act and my examination was carried out in accordance with the general directions given by the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland under section 65(9)(b) of the Charities Act.

My examination included a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also included consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as charity trustees concerning any such matters.

My role is to state whether any material matters have come to my attention giving me cause to believe:

1. That accounting records were not kept in accordance with section 63 of the Charities Act
2. That the accounts do not accord with those accounting records
3. That the accounts do not apply with the accounting requirements of the Charities Act
4. That there is further information needed for a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached

Independent examiner's statement

I have completed my examination and have no concerns in respect of the matters (1) to (4) listed above and, in connection with following the directions of the Charity Commission for Northern Ireland, I have found no matters that require drawing to your attention.
