11 girls attended weekly aged between 4-7 years with three leaders and a young leader.

The year started with getting to know our new young members with fun activities both inside and outside when weather permitted. We completed many badges including Network, Healthy living and Skills for my future which included completing baking activities, the value of money, first aid skills and learning to tie shoe laces. We also thought about female pioneers for Parliament week and studied Chinese culture for Thinking Day. We attended a Christmas Fun night organised by Resurgum Trust Lisburn where we enjoyed campfire activities, crafts and everyone met Santa. At Christmas we also held our annual Promise service which was attended by the girls' families and friends, followed by light refreshments. Throughout the year we enjoyed many campfires with hotdogs and s'mores, an Easter egg hunt before ending the year with a teddy bears picnic at
